

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO PRINT.

VOL. XXXIX

CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 1914.

8 Pages

No. 1

EX-GOV. J. C. W. BECKHAM,

Democratic Candidate for U. S. Senator, will speak in Hardinsburg Saturday, July 18, 1914, at one o'clock p. m.; Irvington at 4:30 p. m., and Cloverport at 7:30 p. m.

Come Out and Hear the Great Commoner!

FOURTH OF JULY BRINGS GOOD TIMES

For Young and Old—Boat Parties, Swimming Parties, Basket Dinners, Picnics and Other Outings Enjoyed in Celebration of National Birthday.

Local Patriotism Shown.

"Old Glory" waved enthusiastically at Cloverport Saturday. J. C. Noite & Bro. had an abundance of flags. The bank of Cloverport barred its doors with red, white and blue, and in a number of homes patriotism was shown when the flags were hung out before breakfast. In the yards could be seen children playing with flags as large as they were, and taking in the town from the side to the other including the hill. There was more or less of local patriotism expressed.

At the Epworth League Sunday night an Independence Day program was rendered. Star Spangled Banner was sung by the leading singers and appropriate talks were given. The League room was decorated in honor of the nation's birthday.

So the Fourth was given a bit of sentimental thought in Cloverport, as well as celebrated with trips to Louisville, Owensboro, Cannelton Hardinsburg, and other outings, company at home, and a quiet rest for those who chose it. No whistles were heard from the L. & St. L. shops, the Murray-Tile Plant, Phelps Button Factory or the Lee Plant. The people knew it was the Fourth of July. America was just 138 years old.

The B. Y. P. U. is planning an outing on the rocks up the river Friday night.

Party At Holt.

Mrs. Rufus McCoy chartered a party of boys and girls to Holt where they spent the day on the Indiana side of the river and had a fine Fourth of July. The girls looked so sweet and attractive in their white outing dresses and white duck hats on which were pinned tiny flags in honor of the day. They went on the morning train and returned that evening. Those in the party were: Misses Mary and Addie McGavock, Jane Lightfoot, Donna Ross, Geney Willis, Mary Pate, Clara May Seaton, Louise Nicholas, Eula McCracken, Mary Owen Oelze, Tula Babbage, Rosa Sippel, Mrs. McCoy, Lucille and Marion Hardin, Kathryn Tinius, Fred Adams, J. T. Lewis, Joe Ross, Forrest Dryden Weatherholt, Donald Gregory, Miller Ferry, Willie Warren Seaton, Jas. Stinius, Leonard Weatherholt, Virgie Hardin, Charlie Collins.

Party at the Sand Bar.

The young society men gave a Fourth of July party at the Sand Bar Saturday afternoon. It was one of the best times ever had on the river. The crowd left at 2 o'clock on the Mary Jane and the David M. As soon as the bar was reached a tent was pitched, monade made and everything gotten ready to make the party have a good time. The river was fine, however the day was almost a rival for the crowd. A world of fun playing in the sand. Seven o'clock the party crossed to the Kentucky side and had supper on the rocks. Hot coffee, bacon and eggs, with many delicious salads and cakes covered the white table linens. In the center was a large white cake with flags and while "old glory" waved back and forth, the Rev. Mr. Frank returned thanks for the happy occasion. Messrs. Ira Behen and William Pate brought the crowd back to the city at 10 o'clock. They went to the air dome and concluded the celebration of the Fourth with a water-melon feast at the home of Miss Katherine Moorman. Mr. Frank Plank was in charge of the arrangements assisted by the following: Messrs. Randall Weatherholt, William Mitchell, Floyd Carter, Paul Lewis, Lefe Behen, C. B. Brabant, Marion Deaton, Andrew Ashby, Edward Weber, W. C. Frank, Carl Britton, Mike Tucker.

Items From The Hill.

Miss Anna Edmonson and Owen Berry furnished music for the dancers at the Fourth of July Picnic at Derby, Ind., also for the ball in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Simons made a flying trip to Louisville Wednesday. They left on the 5 o'clock train in the evening and returned that night.

Joseph Miller spent Saturday and Sunday at home, returning to Louisville Sunday evening.

Miss Vera Moorman entertained one evening last week in honor of her friend, Miss Anice Neel, of Owensboro. She is a niece of Mrs. Lonnie Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Satterfield spent the latter part of last week in the country.

Mrs. Fred Furrow and Mrs. Claud Powell, of New Albany, Ind., were visitors at the home of Mrs. J. Miller last Wednesday. It was the first time Mrs. Furrow had been on the hill in eleven years. She could hardly realize she was in Cloverport.

Mr. Charlie Kiel attended the funeral of J. G. Harris in Louisville Sunday.

E. C. Burton and son, Preston, of Askins, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Simons on the 4th.

The Misses Robertson, of West point, were the guests of Miss Beasie Arnold Sunday.

Miss Monie Pate who has been visiting relatives and friends here and at Balltown returned to her home in Louisville Saturday.

Mrs. Charlie Mattingly is on the sick list.

Lillian, Minnie and James, children of Mrs. James Buckley, have the whooping cough. Lillian who has been seriously ill, is reported better at this writing.

Miss Rosa Newton has just returned from a visit to Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Truman Adams in Louisville.

Mrs. Ben Miller and children have returned to their home in Louisville.

Were a premium given Mrs. Viola Jackson would get the blue ribbon for raising the finest tomatoes on the hill.

On the 4th a basket dinner was given by several families on the hill. It was said to be quite a nice affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn and children, and Mrs. Jake Miller and daughter Helen went to Cannelton on the Fourth.

Mrs. Reme Pate had visitors on the Fourth.

Ordinance No. 104 to Establish the Salary of Pound Keeper.

The City Council of the City of Cloverport do ordain as follows: A salary of ($15.00) fifteen dollars per month shall be attached to the office of pound keeper in the City of Cloverport, Ky., payable out of the City funds. This ordinance shall become effective from this, the 1st day of June, 1914.

CHAS. W. HAMMAM, Mayor.

Attest: Paul Lewis, Clerk.

Eightieth Dividend.

A. B. Skillman, cashier of the Breckenridge Bank, paid his eightieth semi-annual dividend July 1. The Bank was established in 1872 and Mr. Skillman says they have never failed to pay the dividend except the first six months when the bank was opened.

MOTHER OF THIRTEEN

Mrs. Mary J. Mattingly Dies at the Age of Seventy-Three Years—Funeral at Hardinsburg.

Mrs. Mary J. Mattingly, wife of Mr. Jack Mattingly, died at her home in Eastland July 3 at 6:30 P. M. She had been ill of paralysis seven weeks.

Mrs. Mattingly was seventy-three years old, and was the mother of thirteen children, thirty-four grand-children and three great grand-children. She was a devoted member of St. Rose Catholic church. Her life will always be a source of pride to her children and their children, as she was a loyal and devoted mother. Even in her old age, when confined daily to her home, she was cheerful and bright and never complained.

NOTICE!

On and after this date, coal in 50 bushel lots and less will be sold for cash only. Thirty days will be allowed on 50 bushel lots and over with the privilege of one half cent discount on bushel, if bill is paid on delivery of coal. City Coal Co., June 29, 1914, Cloverport, Ky.

MR. HARRIS DEAD

Jas. G. Harris Dies Of Bright's Disease At His Home In Louisville Friday Afternoon.

Jas. Gilbert Harris, of Louisville and Irvington, died at his residence at 531 West St. Catherine Street at 4:10 p. m., July 3. The funeral was held at Calvary Episcopal church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and the interment in Cave Hill cemetery.

Mr. Harris was manager of the Webster Store Company and several months ago was compelled to leave his work, and went to his home in Louisville then to Canada, thinking he would regain his health. He was a very successful business man and for a number of years held a good position at the L. H. & St. L. R. K. shops in this city. He was fifty-three years old and was born in Canada.

Mr. Harris leaves his widow, one daughter, Miss Jennie Mabel Harris, and two sons, Edward Harris and Russell Harris, of Louisville.

Messrs. W. C. Moorman, William Smart and Frank Payne, of Cloverport, and William Thompson, of Livingston, attended the funeral.

Smith-Cook.

Mr. Robert Smith and Miss Lena Cook, both of Mystic, came here Wednesday and were married at the Baptist parsonage by the Rev. Mr. Cottrell.

OFFICERS:

B. F. Beard, President. Paul Compton, Cashier. M. B. Kincheloe, Ast. Cashier.

DIRECTORS:

B. F. Beard, C. V. Robertson, Dr. A. M. Kincheloe, D. S. Richardson, Paul Compton.

CONDENSED REPORT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION OF

The Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Co., HARDINSBURG, KY.

Made to Banking Commissioner of Kentucky at the Close of Business, June 20th, 1914.

Resources		Liabilities
Loans and Discounts	$375,723.67	Capital Stock, Paid in
Overdrafts	1,874.15	Cash	$ 50,000.00
Due from Banks	38,458.85	Surplus Fund	25,000.00
Cash on hand	18,209.89	Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid	8,716.07
Checks and other cash items	235.36	Deposits subject to check	$182,779.49
Banking House, Furniture and Fixtures Charged off		Time Deposits	169,901.37 352,680.86
Other real Estate, (Farm Lands)	1,799.27
Other assets not included under above heads	95.74
Total	$436,396.93	Total	$436,396.93

RESPECTFULLY,

PAUL COMPTON, CASHIER.

Your Checking and Savings Accounts Respectfully Solicited.
TOTAL ASSETS, INCLUDING TRUSTS, OVER $400,000.00.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Insures the most delicious and healthful food

By the use of Royal Baking Powder a great many more articles of food may be readily made at home, all healthful, delicious, and economical, adding much variety and attractiveness to the menu.

The "Royal Baker and Pastry Cook," containing five hundred practical receipts for all kinds of baking and cookery, free. Address Royal Baking Powder Co., New York.

The Farmers Bank Declare Three Per Cent Dividend.

Hardinsburg July 3.—(Special)—At a meeting of the directors of The Farmers Bank last week a 3 per cent dividend was declared. J. W. Teaff, one of the directors, resigned and W. Sherman Ball was elected to fill his place.

This bank is gaining ground all of the time. Each week they get new depositors. The officers are ever ready to serve the public.

Fair Directors Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Directors of the Breckenridge County Fair Association at Hardinsburg next Monday, July 13th, at 12:45 o'clock P. M., in the office of C. V. Robertson, up stairs, in Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Co's building. It is very important that every director be present. Important business.

Canvassing the District.

Sherman Ball went to Louisville Monday. From there he goes over the district in the interest of his race for the Republican nomination for Congress. Sherman thinks he will get 1800 votes in the primary. He ought to have every Republican vote in the county.

Protracted Meeting—English Church.

Pastor E. O. Cottrell will leave next Monday to aid Bro. Blackburn in a meeting at English church. The meeting will continue about two weeks. Bro. Cottrell supplied at Stephensport last Sunday and reports a good day.

K. of P. Notice.

All members are requested to meet at Castle Hall, Monday night, July 13, 1914, at 7:30 p. m. Important business. W. A. Roff, K. of R. and S.

Card of Thanks.

We thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness during the illness and death of our darling baby.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lane

Fine Crop of Potatoes

Charles Waggoner of potatoes, yet reported. News. Mr. Waggoner's potatoes are fine.

CROWDER-BABBAGE.

A special from Georgetown, Kentucky, gives this account of a wedding of interest here:

One of the prettiest weddings of this season took place Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Powell, East Main street, Georgetown, Kentucky, when Miss Margaret Lee Crowder and Mr. Arthur Wallace Babbage were united in marriage.

The large old fashioned house was made most attractive with many plants and flowers, the color, pink and white, being charmingly used in the decorations. Palms, ferns and flowers, the gifts of loving friends, were placed about the mantel in the old colonial parlor forming the altar. Many white waxen candles in silver candelabra made a soft radiance, the mirror above reflecting the beautiful scene.

Before this altar the bride and bridegroom stood for the impressive ring service, the Rev. Dr. J. W. Porter, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Lexington, Kentucky, performing the ceremony.

The tall stately bride never looked more beautiful. She wore an exquisite bridal gown of ivory satin trimmed with lace and pearls. The long tulle veil of illusion made with a Juliet cap adorned with a wreath of orange blossoms crowned her wealth of soft dark hair. A spray of the blossoms fastened the hem of the veil to the court train. She carried a beautiful arm bouquet of bride's roses tied with soft white tulle, and she came down the stairway where she was met by the waiting bridegroom. Together they entered the parlor to the music of the Bridal March from Lohengrin played by Miss Mildred Sinclair Lewis, the talented musician of Lexington. Traumerel by Schuman was softly played while the impressive ceremony was said, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March from "Midsummer Night's Dream" during congratulations.

Mr. Babbage is a graduate from Kentucky State University, he and his bride having been classmates and receiving their degrees in the same year.

After completing his college course he took the law course at George Washington University, Washington, D. C. He is the junior member of the law firm of Logan & Babbage, Pineville, Kentucky, and is a young attorney of great promise, having already achieved much success in his chosen profession.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crowder, of Lawrenceburg, Anderson county. She is a beautiful and cultured young woman with a rare gift for making friends. For three years she has been a successful teacher of Latin and English in the Georgetown High school.

Many handsome gifts of silver, linen and cut glass were received. One gift especially prized on account of its age and associations was a beautiful and valuable mahogany table more than a hundred years old presented by Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Powell.

The bride changed her wedding robe for a traveling suit of dark blue taffeta with hat to match. The happy couple left in an automobile for Lexington, where they took the 8:40 Chesapeake & Ohio train for an Eastern trip.

Only the immediate families and a few friends and neighbors were present, but a host of friends unite in wishing them a long, useful and happy life together.

After their wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Babbage will be at home at Pineville, Kentucky.—Lexington Leader.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

The Hardin Family (continued)

He belonged to the M. E. church, and was a minister of some note. He was the father of General M. D. Hardin, and grandfather of Col. J. J. Hardin, of Illinois.

Gen. Martin D. Hardin was about six years old when his father, Col. John Hardin, emigrated in April, 1796, with his family from the Monongahela county to a point on Pleasant Run, a branch of the Beech Fork, about three miles east of where Springfield now is. He studied law with Col. Geo. Nicholas and practiced at Richmond and afterwards at Frankfort with success. In 1812 he was a major in the campaign on the northern border during the war with Great Britain. He was Secretary of State of Kentucky under Gov. Isaac Shelby, 1813-16, and was appointed by Gov. Gabriel Slaughter to fill a vacancy in the U. S. Senate, serving one session, 1816-17. He died at Frankfort, October 8, 1853, at 43 years.

John J. Hardin, son of Martin D. Hardin, was born at Frankfort, January 10, 1810, was educated at Transylvania University, removed to Jacksonville, Illinois, in 1830, and there began practicing law. He at once became active in politics, and in 1834 was a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, an office at that time chosen by the legislature. He was defeated by Stephen A. Douglas, then a recent arrival from Vermont. In 1838 he was elected to the lower branch of the General Assembly, and served three terms. In the session of 1836-37, he was one of the few members who opposed the internal improvements scheme. He was elected to Congress from the Sangamon district in 1843, and served until 1845. For some time he was a General in the State militia. In the Mexican war he was colonel of the First Illinois Regiment and was killed at the battle of Vista, February 23, 1847.

Report of the condition of THE FIRST STATE BANK

Doing business at the town of Irvington, County of Breckenridge, State of Kentucky at the close of business on 20th day of June, 1914

RESOURCES

Loans and Discounts	$ 82,944.08
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	231.67
Due from Banks	17,552.44
Cash on hand	4,114.38
Banking House, Furniture and Fixtures	3,449.31
Other Assets not included under any of above heads	913.38
Total	$101,215.26

LIABILITIES

Capital Stock paid in in cash	$ 15,000.00
Surplus Fund	2,000.00
Undivided Profits, less expenses and taxes paid	1,037.73
Deposits subject to check	$ 41,448.10
Time Deposits	49,729.43
Total	$109,215.26

State of Kentucky, County of Breckenridge, } Sec.

We, W. J. Piggott and J. C. Payne, President and Cashier of the above named Bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of our knowledge and belief.

W. J. Piggott, President.

J. C. Payne, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this June 25, 1914.

Correct—Attest:

Lottie Bandy, Notary Public.

My Commission Expires Jan. 19, 1918.

his State. It was through his intercession that the unpleasantness between Lincoln and Snields in 1842 was amicably settled and a duel prevented.

Sarah Hardin, daughter of Col. John Hardin, married her cousin, Ben Hardin, and was the mother of Warren Hardin and lawyer, Ben Hardin. Ben Hardin was born in 1784, in Westmoreland county, Penn. His parents moved to Springfield, Washington county, Ky., in 1787. Received his early education from Lebanon Radly, in 1804 studied law at Richmond, Ky., with Martin D. Hardin. Died September 24, 1852, aged 68. Belonged to the M. E. Church, South John Randolph gave him the name of the kitchen knife, rough and homely but keen and trenchant.

One of the earliest settlers of the county of Breckenridge was Capt. Wm. Hardin. In March, 1792, Capt. Wm. Hardin, Zack Hardin, Little John Hardin, two men by the name of Payne, and one by the name of Robertson, came down the Ohio River, to the mouth of Sinking Creek, and up that Creek to the Falls. There they carried everything out to where Hardinsburg now stands.

HARDINSBURG FOUNDED.

Among the other things was a keg of rum. Erected their tents that evening and that night all got on a glorious drunk. That was the first drunk in Breckenridge County, (but it was not the last, Hardin's Station, (or Hardinsburg), was founded by Wm. Hardin in 1792, who, on account of his id most giant size and weight, was a terror to the Indians, fur and near, being known as "Big Bill." He stood six feet four inches in his moccasins, weighed 240 pounds without a single ounce of surplus flesh, very dark, large Roman nose, large mouth with unusually thin, firm lips, and very small hands and feet for a man of his size. He was a brave soldier during the Revolution and still more daring on the war path after the Indians. One morning early at his door preparing for a hunt he fired off his gun and began to wipe it out; just then an Indian stepped from behind the chimney, aimed his gun, and with an exulting shout exclaimed, "Hooh, Big Bill!"—a fatal pause—for Hardin with his own knocked off the Indian's gun and clubbed his brains out instantly.

(Continued next week.)

Best Diarrhoea Remedy.

If you have ever used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy you know that it is a success. Sam F. Guin, Whatley, Ala., writes: "I had measles and got caught in the rain and I settled in my stomach, and now I had in the face, and now I had a ret in on for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I could not possibly have lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy, I am now well and strong." For sale by all dealers.

AXTEL NEWS.

Mrs. Bessie Newton and daughter are the guests of her uncle Perry Glasscock and Mrs. Glasscock.

Miss Bertha Whentley who was bit by a snake is improving.

Our merchants are doing good business here.

Mr. Ernest Speaks was the guest of Miss Mary Brown at Cave Spring Sunday.

Mr. Harry Storm was the guest of Miss Anna Brown Sunday.

William Storm is in the writing.

State of Kentucky, County of Breckenridge, } Sec.

We, W. J. Piggott and J. C. Payne, President and Cashier of the above named Bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of our knowledge and belief.

W. J. Piggott, President.

J. C. Payne, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this June 25, 1914.

Correct—Attest:

Lottie Bandy, Notary Public.

My Commission Expires Jan. 19, 1918.

his State. It was through his intercession that the unpleasantness between Lincoln and Snields in 1842 was amicably settled and a duel prevented.

Sarah Hardin, daughter of Col. John Hardin, married her cousin, Ben Hardin, and was the mother of Warren Hardin and lawyer, Ben Hardin. Ben Hardin was born in 1784, in Westmoreland county, Penn. His parents moved to Springfield, Washington county, Ky., in 1787. Received his early education from Lebanon Radly, in 1804 studied law at Richmond, Ky., with Martin D. Hardin. Died September 24, 1852, aged 68. Belonged to the M. E. Church, South John Randolph gave him the name of the kitchen knife, rough and homely but keen and trenchant.

One of the earliest settlers of the county of Breckenridge was Capt. Wm. Hardin. In March, 1792, Capt. Wm. Hardin, Zack Hardin, Little John Hardin, two men by the name of Payne, and one by the name of Robertson, came down the Ohio River, to the mouth of Sinking Creek, and up that Creek to the Falls. There they carried everything out to where Hardinsburg now stands.

Among the other things was a keg of rum. Erected their tents that evening and that night all got on a glorious drunk. That was the first drunk in Breckenridge County, (but it was not the last, Hardin's Station, (or Hardinsburg), was founded by Wm. Hardin in 1792, who, on account of his id most giant size and weight, was a terror to the Indians, fur and near, being known as "Big Bill." He stood six feet four inches in his moccasins, weighed 240 pounds without a single ounce of surplus flesh, very dark, large Roman nose, large mouth with unusually thin, firm lips, and very small hands and feet for a man of his size. He was a brave soldier during the Revolution and still more daring on the war path after the Indians. One morning early at his door preparing for a hunt he fired off his gun and began to wipe it out; just then an Indian stepped from behind the chimney, aimed his gun, and with an exulting shout exclaimed, "Hooh, Big Bill!"—a fatal pause—for Hardin with his own knocked off the Indian's gun and clubbed his brains out instantly.

(Continued next week.)

BIG PICNIC!

In Lyddan's Grove, Webster, Ky.

Saturday, July 18, 1914

By Modern Woodmen of America

Come Early, Stay Late

Good, First-Class Barbecued Dinner

Music by Hanes' String Band

Ice Water on the Ground; All come and Enjoy the day

You Must Not Miss It!

Confetti, Music, Fun and Laughter, Lemonade, Cool Drinks, Ice Cream, All Kinds of Refreshments and Good Things to Eat

This Picnic and Barbecue will be given by Camp No. 15,039, Modern Woodmen of America 200 Yards North of Webster Station; this will be a happy event for everybody and big plans are being made for a big crowd.

Managers: J. V. St. Clair, M. Lyddan, Dr. T. J. Hendricks

Several from here went up on the excursion Sunday.

Born to the wife of Charlie Clark, a fine girl.

Miss Lula Cannon and brother Sammie, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jarboe Sunday. They are making big preparations for the dedication at the new church at Sand Nob the second Sunday in July.

Headache and Nervousness Cured.

"Chamberlain's Tablets are entitled to all the praise I can give them," writes Mrs. Richard Oip. Spencerport, N. Y. They have cured me of headache and nervousness and restored me to my normal health." For sale by all dealers.

STEPHENSPOET

Janison Hawkins, of Louisville, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Hawkins, at their country home Sunday. Janison is doing well, it will be remembered he graduated two years ago from the K. D. S. at Danville, Ky., and he now has a permanent position with the Belknap Hardware and M. N. E. T. Co.

Mrs. W. J. Schopp is in Louisville for a few days making her final preparation for a trip across the sea with her husband to see his mother.

Jerry Lennon, of Hardinsburg, will spend the summer months with his grandfather, R. A. Smith.

John Martin, a fine farmer and a pleasant gentleman, is ill.

Elsie McKaughn, of Cloverport, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Emma McKaughn.

Allen Barbee received three watermelons from Summerfield, Fla., the three weighed 150 pounds.

Mrs. Sarah McCoy and grandson have returned to Cloverport.

Annie Helen Hall, of Hardin Grove, Ind., spent a week with Mrs. R. A. Smith.

Misses Sadie and Alene Cohen have returned to Louisville after a three weeks' visit with Mrs. W. J. Schopp.

R. A. South spent the Fourth in Louisville.

W. J. Schopp gave Jack Morris, who is very ill, an invalid chair to help make him comfortable.

SAMPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Brumfield and family, of Tell City, Ind., have returned home after a week's visit to her mother, Mrs. Nelson Jolly.

Roy Peckcupaugh, of Louisville, is here for a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Jas. Armstrong.

Mrs. Strepta Grant and son, Virgil, of Lewisport, have returned home after a long visit to her sister, Mrs. Jas. Armstrong.

Mrs. Mary Adkins is on a sick

PICNIC

—AND—

BARBECUE!

Tuesday, July 21st

Axtel, Ky.

HON.

A. O. STANLEY

Speaker of The Day

Owen Basham, of Cloverport, was at home Sunday.

Donald Eskridge, of Owensboro, who has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. S. H. Eskridge, has returned home.

Raymond Fentress is visiting rela

Zenia Shellman was in Louisville Monday.

W. H. Payne was in Hardinsburg a few days last week.

Rev. Hunt closed a successful meeting here Sunday.

I H. Re (rs. of Clv report, was in Maurice Tucker, of Hardinsburg was the guest of Miss Maude Jol Sunday.

Harry Seaton, of New Bethel, tended the baptizing here Sunday.

Quite a crowd came down from

HARDINSBURG

Ah, many a one is longing,
For words that are never said;
And many a heart goes hungry
For something better than bread.
—Josephine Pollard.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. English and children have returned to their home at Bera, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beard.

Miss Della Kincheloe is at home from Louisville where she has been for a month's visit to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kincheloe.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Richardson and Miss Long, of Louisville, have been the guests of their sister, Mrs. Percy Beard.

Mrs. Willie Huston, of Louisville, has returned to her home after a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Larkin Gibson came up from Cloverport and spent the day with her mother, Mrs. Susan Squires, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Minor Compton spent last week at their farm near Garfield.

Walter Brown, of Custer, made a business trip to town last Wednesday.

Miss Emma Ahl left for her home in Louisville last Friday. Miss Ahl has been in the millinery department at B. F. Beard & Co.'s for the last two seasons.

Miss Katie Eskridge, who has been teaching in the Masonic Orphans' Home for the last two years, has arrived home to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Addie Eskridge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McElwane their home in Springfield are giving congratulations on the arrival of a little girl baby. Anne LaRue McElwane.

Mrs. G. D. Beard and son, William Ahl Beard, have gone to Louisville to visit her parents, Judge and Mrs. Wm. Ahl, at their home on East Broadway.

H. C. Murray made a trip to Louisville last week.

Miss Jennie Barnes has returned to Louisville after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Mary Barnes.

Mrs. Nannie Adkisson spent last week at Maple Lawn Stock Farm with Mr. and Mrs. John M. Skillman.

Mrs. Nancy Norton had a reunion at her home at Norton's Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Basham and daughter, Mary E. Basham, attended.

Sheriff Arthur T. Beard was in Louisville last week.

Mrs. Cornelia Miller has returned from Cloverport where she has been the guest of Mrs. Barney Squires.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Walls and daughter, Miss Linnie Walls, spent the Fourth with relatives in Owensboro.

Miller Severs, from Florida, has been the guest of his uncle, Lee Walls.

S. A. Dodson, of Custer, was the dinner guest of Supt. J. W. Trent and Mrs. Trent last Friday.

Dud McGary, of Kirk, was the guest of John O'Reilly, Jr., last week.

Sam DeJarnette, R. F. D. carrier on route 3, is taking his vacation. Hubert DeJarnette is carrying the mail.

Miss Maud Smith, of Glen Dean, is visiting her cousin, Miss Annie O'Reilly.

Mrs. Amos Board has gone back to B. F. Beard & Co.'s store to clerk again.

Godfrey Haswell has gone to Stephensport to spend his vacation with relatives. He will fish in the Ohio river while there.

Mrs. Dick Soper, of Bowling Green, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robbins.

John O'Reilly, Jr., assistant postmaster, is in Owensboro visiting friends.

Claud Mercer has gone to Washington, D. C., for a visit.

Misses Lilyan Beard and Louise Moorman spent the Fourth in Cloverport with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dowell are in Garfield visiting his parents while he is taking his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Vic Robertson were in Louisville last week.

Miss Shellie Pool is visiting friends in Cloverport.

Mrs. Margaret May has returned from Hopkinsville where she has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Pate.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Basham and children, were the guests of relatives in West View last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Hendrick spent last week in the country with Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Hendrick.

Dr. and Mrs. Moorman Hardaway and baby, Mrs. H. H. Kemper and Ben Clarkson motored down here from Big Spring. While in town they were the guests of Mrs. F. W. Peyton.

Mrs. Preston Jarboe, of Evansville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith and children, of Glen Dean, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Belle Smith.

If you need a motor or horse-power hay press or hay loader at a bargain price phone or address Irvington Hardware & Implement Co., Irvington, Ky.

Miss Elmina Lyons, of McQuady, is the guest of Miss Mary Helen Whitworth.

Miss Elizabeth Palmer, of Louisville, is visiting the Misses Whitworth.

Rev. S. K. Hunt and C. E. Haswell are spending this week in Stephensport fishing.

Mrs. Lela McCubbins and daughter, Miss Ruth McCubbins, are visiting Mrs. McCubbins and Mrs. Fox in Stephensport.

Miss Jennie C. Lennon has gone to Stephensport for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Smith.

Mrs. John D. Shaw, Misses Meda Ditto and Maud Smith attended the Missionary Rally at Harned Sunday.

Miss Emma Lenchman addressed the ladies at the Baptist church Monday evening. From here she went to Glen Dean.

The town is almost deserted so far as the young people are con-

SHERIFF SALE FOR TAXES.

By virtue of taxes due the Commonwealth of Kentucky, amounting to the sum set opposite the name of each person named below, I or one of my deputies will on Monday, July 27, 1914, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 2 o'clock P. M. at the Court House door in Hardinsburg, Breckenridge County, Kentucky, expose to public sale to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the property described and set opposite each person named in the appended list or so much of said property as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of taxes due aforesaid and cost, said taxes being due for the years as indicated after each person's name, to wit:

S. W. Pate, 2nd district, 115 acres of land, 1913, $11.15.
J. E. Applegate, 2nd district, 115 acres of land, 1913, $6.56.
John Fisher, colored, 2nd district, 1 house and lot, 1913, $24.88.
Walben Mercer, colored, 2nd district, 1 house and lot, 1913, $9.94.
J. P. Mason, 2nd district, 36 acres of land, 1913, $4.80.
J. T. Matthews, 2nd district, 261 acres of land, 1913, $18.73.
Clarence Ganaway, 6th district, 50 acres of land, 1913, $5.83.
George Hines, 6th district, 125 acres of land, 1913, $8.61.
Jess Matthews, 6th district, 69 acres of land, 1913, $14.59.
Lee Phelps, 6th district, 3 acres of land, 1910-11-12-13, $17.40.
Eminett Pool, 6th district, 40 acres of land, 1912-13, $9.07.
Ed Probus, 6th district, 28 acres of land, 1910-13, $13.81.
Eliga Moorman, 6th district, 1 lot, 1911-12-13, $24.81.
Wm. E. Clark, 6th district, 99 acres of land, 1911-12-13, $34.81.
T. C. Allen & Bro., 1st district, 121 acres of land, 1912-13, $24.85.
Lou Aldridge, 6th district, 107 acres of land, 1912, $12.07.
Lew McClelland, 6th district 1 black male, 1912-13, $11.25.
Dr. W. H. Lucas, 1st district, 1 house and lot, 1912-13, $10.09.
Henry Haynes, colored, 1st district, 1 house and lot, 1912-13, $11.37.
Mrs. Alice Haynes, colored, 1st district, 1 house and lot, 1913, $7.14.
Alexander Wines, colored, 1st district, 1 town lot, 1912-13, $8.47.
John Ellis, 2nd district, 54 acres of land, 1913, $10.58.
Ennis Duncanson, house and lot, McQuady, taxes and cost, 1911-12-13, $17.39.
DENNIE SHEERAN,
Ex. Sheriff, B. C.

earned. Two camping parties left Tuesday for a week. Mrs. Manie Moorman and Miss Bettie Taylor accompanied the following to Sulphur Spring out near Kingswood: Misses Nancy and Della Kincheloe, Hallie and Fannie Lee Brown, Eliza and Louise Taylor; Messrs. Franklin Kincheloe, Murray Brown, Robert Haswell and Samuel Evans and Russell Compton. The other party, accompanied by Messdames Gus Shellman and Lela McCubbins, were: Misses Mary Franklin Beard, Ruth Kincheloe, Annie Lewis and Clara Whitworth, Elizabeth Palmer; Messrs. Ely Duvall, Hobart Shellman, John and Hewitt Gibson and Jerry Lennon. This party went to Falls of Sinking.

We have a very low price on a motor and horse-power hay press and hay loader. Call or address Irvington Hardware & Implement Co., Irvington, Ky.

Severe Attack of Colic Cured.
E. E. Cross, who travels in Virginia and other Southern States, was taken suddenly and severely ill with colic. At the first store he came to the merchant recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it cured him. No one should leave home on a journey without a bottle of this preparation. For sale by all dealers.

LODIBURG.
Mrs. Golt Severs, of Colorado, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Grant, this week.
Mrs. June Bandy is the guest of her son, Davis Bandy, of Louisville, this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Owsley and two daughters, of Caneyville, were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harman Parks.

Will Start on our Trip Abroad JULY 10th

Leaving July 18th on steamer Imperator for Hamburg and other points, returning September 3rd.

Miss Lena Payne will take charge of all my outstanding accounts and will highly appreciate if you will come and settle. Miss Payne, when not in my store can be found next door in the Post Office.

Thanking you all for the many past favors and patronage shown to us, I bid you all a farewell

Auf Wiedersehen.

Respectfully,

W. J. SCHOPP

Stephensport, Ky.

THE OLD RELIABLE

Breckinridge Bank.

Does a Strictly Legitimate Banking Business
This Enables us to be Always Safe and Strong

When in Need of Anything Come to us

GOLDEN ROD WHITE LEGHORNS

Will help to lower the high cost of living

Eggs For Hatching

$1.50 per setting of 15 Eggs
2.50 per setting of 30 Eggs
3.00 per setting of 50 Eggs
$5.00 per setting of 100 Eggs or more

Golden Rod Egg Farm

P. M. BEARD, Prop. Hardinsburg, Ky.

Subscribe Today

H. E. ROYALTY PERMANENT DENTIST

Comb. Phone 18. Residence Shellman House

Hardinsburg, Kentucky

Office Over Farmers Bank

Try a Want Ad, it Pa

BUY THE VERY BEST

Cheap paint soon cracks and peels off, and is neither useful nor ornamental. You can have a guarantee of highest quality and of absolute satisfaction if you will buy nothing else but

Silver Seal Paints

Finishes, Stains and Varnishes

And they will cost you 25% less than other high grade brands. Tell us your paint needs today and we will send you our PAINT BOOK free. It gives prices and other valuable information.

Kentucky Paint Mfg Company,

(Incorporated)
513 W. Market St.
LOUISVILLE, KY.

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS,

JNO. D. SABBAGE, Editor and Publisher

Issued Every Wednesday.

CLOVERPORT, KY., WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 1914

EIGHT PAGES.

BUSINESS LOCALS 10c per line, and 5c for each additional insertion.

CARDS OF THANKS over five lines charged for at the rate of 10 cents per line.

OBITUARIES charged for at the rate of 5 cents per line. money in advance.

Examine the label on your paper. If it is not correct please notify us.

THERE is always hope in a man that actually and earnestly works. In idleness alone there is perpetual despair.—Carlyle.

John W. Boyd of Elizabethtown, Democratic candidate for Congress in August Primary, was in Hardinsburg Monday. His announcement appears in this issue. Mr. Boyd says he is going to give Mr. Johnson a lively race for the nomination. We admire Mr. Boyd's nerve and pluck, but doubt the wisdom of his venture. It will take a man mighty in words and deeds to displace the old war horse.

It is alarmingly dry and crops are suffering, but the rain will come in good time and we will all be happy. We are not near the jumping off place.

Crops are not suffering, it is the man behind the plow. We will have plenty of rain and it will come in good time for all of us.

If you want to hear a speech full of wisdom and uplift go and hear Mr. Beckham when he comes to Breckenridge.

Isn't this splendid weather for moving the wheat crop and the hay crop and plowing corn and tobacco.

Are you reading in borrowed paper. Suppose everybody was just like you—where would the paper be?

There is one thing that is not bothering us and that is the income tax.

Cash Investment of The Railways During Six Years

During the six fiscal years 1908 to 1913, inclusive, the steam railways of the United States of Class 1 invested in their road and equipment cash to the amount of $4,010,385,303. Railways of Class 1, so designated by the Interstate Commerce Commission, are those with annual operating revenues of over $1,000,000. They include about 90 per cent of the mileage, receive more than 96 per cent of the revenues, and handle more than 98 per cent of the traffic.

This cash investment of the operating railways of Class 1 of the Eastern District during the six years was greater than the amount of capital securities issued by them during this period, and was 19.9 per cent of the aggregate of their capital securities outstanding June 30, 1913; of the railways of the same class of the Southern District it was 21.1 per cent, and of the railways of the same class of the Western District it was 23.2 per cent of the aggregate of their capital securities outstanding June 30, 1913. That is, the cash actually expended by these railways during the last six years upon their properties used in transportation amounts to more than one-fifth of their total capitalization at the close of the last fiscal year. This is at the rate of $668,397,551 per year.

These figures are obtained through a compilation made by the Bureau of Railway Economics from the reports of the railways to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and have not heretofore been collated.

Petition To Change Road.

R. M. Basham, County Road Engineer, on petition to change road. On the fourth Monday in July, 1914, being regular County Court day, R. M. Basham, County Road Engineer, will file a petition to change county road over the land of Mrs. Bettie Dempster, beginning at R. R. crossing below Rockvale and ending near M. L. Hart's stable, a distance of about 350 yards.

Report Of Delegates.

The Epworth League delegates who went to the annual conference at Marion yesterday will give their annual report Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited to hear the young men.

Life's Changes.

Life is full of changes. One day we have an office cut and no catnip, and the next day we have plenty of catnip and no cut. Toledo Blade.

Wouldst thou subject all things to thyself? Subject thyself to reason.—Seneca.

LAST TOUCHES TO REGIONAL BANKS

Officers Elected Following Naming of Directors.

LIGHT ON MOOTED POINTS.

Twelve Federal Institutions Likely to Open Simultaneously, Though Law Does Not Say They Must—Now Believed It Will Be End of September Before Equipment Is Perfected.

What the twelve regional banks will do and their relations with the public are subjects concisely treated in the New York Post, which says:

After the federal reserve board is organized its first duty will be to appoint thirty-six directors in Class C—three for each regional bank—after which the full board of each bank must elect a president and other officers and provide an adequate clerical force. The indications are that the new banks cannot be properly equipped before the end of September or later.

There is nothing in the law to prevent the federal reserve board from permitting one or two regional banks to open before the whole twelve are ready, and, although that has been proposed, there is no probability that it will be permitted.

Business Between Member Banks.

One question asked everywhere has been, What will the reserve banks do when they are ready to start?

There is no authorization in the law under which the regional banks may discount or lend directly to private individuals. They will tend to and receive deposits from member banks alone. The law provides, however, that a regional bank may "purchase and sell in the open market, at home or abroad, either from or to domestic or foreign banks, firms, corporations or individuals, cable transfers and bankers' acceptances and bills of exchange of the kinds and maturities by this act made eligible for rediscount, with or without the indorsement of a member bank." This provision does not relate to domestic business at all, but it shows clearly that the reserve banks may ultimately become a good deal of a factor in the foreign exchange market.

The chances are that the regional banks at New York and Chicago will do most of this business, acting possibly for the regional banks in other cities. In course of time the regional banks will in all probability handle a large proportion of the foreign business now done by banks of this city.

Interest on Deposits.

A very interesting question has to do with the payment of interest on deposits. The law does not forbid the federal reserve banks to pay interest on deposits of member banks, but it is not at all certain that they will do so. There will be no competition for the deposit of reserves required by law, and, although some member banks may find it convenient for exchange purposes to carry larger balances with the regional banks than those called for by the new regulations, such action will be governed by self interest alone and not because the excess balances have been "held for."

It has been supposed that the regional banks would carry most of the money that the government will have to put out, although the law permits the secretary of the treasury to make deposits with individual banks, as formerly. But under the act of May 31, 1908, the secretary collects from the banks 2 per cent interest on "all special and additional deposits" made by the government. On that account it is possible that the secretary will require the regional banks to take government deposits on the same terms as the member banks do—that is, to pay interest on them.

Many country banks have signified their intention of rediscounting with their New York and Chicago correspondents, as formerly. This will mean that paper held by banks in the west, instead of being rediscounted with the regional bank at Chicago or Minneapolis, will be rediscounted by the large Wall street banks, which, if they desire, will secure advances upon it from the federal reserve bank in New York.

CHURCHES' PEACE COUNCILS.

Protestants Meet in Switzerland and Catholics in Belgium on Aug. 2.

Two peace conferences, to which delegates from every country in Europe and from the United States have been invited, will begin on Aug. 2, one at Constance, Switzerland, and the other at Liege, Belgium.

Plans for the council at Constance are announced by Dr. Frederick Lynch, secretary of the Church Peace union, which was founded last February on an endowment of $2,000,000 from Andrew Carnegie.

Only members of Protestant sects will participate in the conference at Constance. Many leading clergymen will sail July 22 to represent various churches in this country. The meeting will be held in the old monastery where Huss was imprisoned during his trial for heresy in 1414.

The Catholic conference at Liege has been postponed to September.

BALKAN KINGS IN CONSTANT PERIL

Recent Tragedy Recalls Other Royal Murders.

SUFFER ENFORCED SECLUSION

Rulers, Protected From Plots Formed Everywhere—William of Albania Occupies Particularly Dangerous Position—Twice Fled Capital From Onslaughts of Mussulman Insurgents.

A king or an heir to a throne in the Balkan states holds the most hazardous position among royalties. The murder of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and the Duchess of Hohenberg added two more names to the list of royal murders.

Compared with other sections of the world, the 200,000 square miles of Balkan territory present the climax of murder and political intrigue, and the rulers therefore are forced to live in utter loneliness and seclusion.

In the few months that have elapsed since his accession to the throne of Albania Prince William has been in constant terror of his life. Austrian and Italian warships linger within range of his castle at Durazzo, while 500 of their sailors are in constant attendance on the prince.

Twice he has been forced to take refuge on men-of-war while Mussulman insurgents stormed the Albanian capital. Every possible precaution has been taken to guard him, but his life is constantly in danger.

King and Queen Slain.

The assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga of Serbia at Belgrade in June, 1903, was one of the most tragic in history. With them were slain two of the ministry, the queen's two brothers and two members of the royal guard, who attempted to protect them.

There had been no previous hint of a plot or uprising. The city of Belgrade had been draped with flags in commemoration of the anniversary of the assassination of Prince Michael, who was slain June 11, 1898, in the park at Tapschider, and a requiem mass was being said in his honor.

March 18, 1913, King George I. of Greece was assassinated while walking on the streets of Saloniki. A previous attempt on his life had been unsuccessful.

Many Other Killings.

Other regicides and political murders in this little territory, scarcely larger than the combined areas of Oregon and Colorado and 45,000 square miles smaller than the state of Texas, include the following:

July 25, 1895—Staudians Stambouliaff, ex-premier of Bulgaria, killed by four persons armed with knives and revolvers.

Sept. 7, 1878—Pasha Mehmet Ali, murdered by Albanians.

June 4, 1876—Hussein Avni and other Turkish ministers killed by Hasani, a Circassian officer.

June 4, 1876—Abdul Aziz, sultan of Turkey, assassinated.

June 10, 1878—Prince Michael of Serbia, killed.

Aug. 12, 1870—Danile, prince of Serbia, slain.

Oct. 9, 1831—Cato D'istria, Greek count and statesman, tortured and killed.

The people of the various kingdoms are exceedingly patriotic, but when this passion turns against a king or official an assassination follows.

WASHINGTON EXPECTS G. A. R.

Coming Encampment Will Vote For 1915 Reunion in National Capital.

The long cherished wish of civil war veterans to see the national capital again before they die will be realized in 1915 when the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Washington, according to Colonel John McElroy, department commander of the District G. A. R.

This year's encampment will be held in Detroit, Mich., beginning Aug. 31. Colonel McElroy and other G. A. R. leaders say that with the unqualified assurance of financial support of the trade bodies of Washington, the Detroit encampment will vote unanimously to hold the next encampment in Washington.

"We have the promise," said Colonel McElroy, "that a delegation of Washington citizens will formally bear an invitation from Washington to the Detroit encampment for the 1915 encampment. In addition to the promised financial support of the trade and citizens' associations, we expect the district commissioners to invite the encampment on behalf of the city of Washington. The encampment would bring no fewer than 100,000 veterans and their families to this city."

Timber Preservation.

The most notable progress yet recorded in the chemical treatment of timber to prevent decay was made in 1913. Impregnation of wood with oils and chemicals to increase its resistance to decay and insect attack is an industry which has become important in the United States only in recent years. In most European countries practically every wooden structure and telephone or telegraph pole received preservative.

THE PRUDENT MAN MAKES US HIS AGENTS - THEN HE ENJOYS HIS TRIP.

When the "prudent man" wants to take a long rest or a trip he places his affairs in the hands of our Trust Company. He knows we can attend to all kinds of business for him; that we will do it PROMPTLY and EFFICIENTLY; that we are RELIABLE and PERMANENT. We are always in touch with profitable, SAFE investments. Come in and learn what our Trust Company can do for you.

Total Resources Including Trust Investments $600,000

Safe Deposit Boxes For One Dollar Per Year.

THE BANK OF HARDINSBURG & TRUST CO.
Hardinsburg, Ky.

CLEARANCE SALE!

While they last all Screen Doors, Windows, and Screen Wire AT COST.

Don't Want to Carry them over—Good lot to select from.

I also carry and am selling at close prices: Building Material of all Kinds, Windows, Doors, Brick, Lime, Sand, Plaster, Cement, Building Hardware, Roofing, Sewerpipe and Farm Drain Tile, Oils, Varnishes, and Interior Finishes, Lubricating Oils and a General Line of Mill and Automobile Supplies.

Write or call me for prompt and efficient service.

Marion Weatherholt, General Contractor
Cloverport, Kentucky

DR. W. B. TAYLOR

...PERMANENT...
DENTIST

Office Hours: 8 a. m. to 12 m.

Always in office during office hours

Irvington, Ky.

Wanted!

150 Stock Hogs
40 to 100 Pounds

Will also buy a few
Sows and Pigs.

Write or Phone

A. T. BEARD, :: Hardinsburg, Ky.

C. H. DRURY'S Fourth Annual Boat Trip From Louisville to Cincinnati ON JULY 15th.

Boat Fare $4.00 Round Trip to include Meals and Berth. Special Rates on Railroad to Louisville. Will visit the new Public Library in Louisville and the Zoological Garden in Cincinnati. Everybody join us! Let us hear from you at once.

C. H. DRURY.

The Breckenridge News.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 1914

Entered at the Post Office at Cloverport, Ky. as second class matter.

THIS PAPER REPRESENTED FOR FOREIGN ADVERTISING BY THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

GENERAL OFFICES NEW YORK AND CHICAGO

BRANCHES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL CITIES

RATES FOR POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Precinct and city Offices.....$ 2.50
For County Offices.....$ 5.00
For State and District Offices.....$ 15.00
For Calls, per line.....10
For Cards, per line.....10
For All Publications in the interest of individuals or expression of individual views per line.....10

Announcement

We are authorized to announce HON. BEN JOHNSON as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress for the Fourth Congressional District, subject to the action of the Primary to be held in August, 1914.

We are authorized to announce JOHN W. BOYD, of Elizabethtown, Ky., as a candidate for Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election August 1, 1914.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

About People at Home and Abroad

Mrs. Gus Ballman is ill.
Mrs. Pete Ballman is quite ill.
Ollie Pate went to Louisville Saturday.
H. Behen spent Monday in Louisville.
Mrs. George Newman, of Pisgah, is sick.
Fred Frank has returned from Evansville.
Mr. and Mrs. Penick were in Louisville Monday.
Mrs. Harry Newsom spent Thursday in Louisville.
Mrs. Allen Kingsbury went to Louisville Thursday.
V. G. Babbage attended Circuit Court in Hawesville Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Ridge returned from Louisville Monday.
Miss Payne, of Hardinsburg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Scott.
P. D. Plank is home from the south visiting his family for a few days.
George Brown left yesterday for Louisville to undergo an operation.
Miss Bertha Garrett, of Stephensport, is visiting on the hill this week.
Mr. and Mrs. James Waters and children were in Louisville last week.
Miss Mary Barrett, of Louisville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Byrne Severs.
Preston Green, of Fallow of Rough, is in Atlantic City for a two weeks' stay.
Miss Jessie Catharine Plank, of Owensboro, is the guest of Miss Jeannette Burn.
Mrs. Isabelle Bailey, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. James Waters.
Hats at and below cost. Beginning this week at Mrs. Cordrey's, Cloverport, Ky.
Mrs. John Pate and children, of Evansville, are visiting relatives near Hardinsburg.
Hats at and below cost. Beginning this week at Mrs. Cordrey's, Cloverport, Ky.
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hinton and children visited relatives in the country last Sunday.
R. O. Perkins left this week for Louisville to accept a position on the police force of Louisville.
Miss Louise Babbage was the guest of Mrs. Ernest L. Robertson at Glen Dean Thursday and Friday.

Patent Medicines

The markets are flooded with patent medicines and other preparations. Some of them have excellent merits while others are almost worthless. We strive to stock all worthy preparations as soon as they are placed on the market. Come to us for patent medicines. We'll give you our candid opinion of any preparation we handle.

Wedding's Drug Store,
The Home of Quality
CLOVERPORT, KY.

For Sale—Coal Oil Stove
FOR SALE—Second-hand Coal Oil Stove.
Mrs. J. H. R. care Breckenridge News.
FOR SALE—International Hay Baler, McCormack Mowing Machine, Hay Tedder and other farm tools. Will take in exchange baled straw or hay. P. M. Beard, Hardinsburg, Ky.

V. G. BABBAGE

Law and Collecting Agency

Have you provided for your family in case of your death?
Have you made provision for your own old age?
If not, you had better do so at once, by buying one of these good lowest cost policies with the Union Central

C. L. BEARD, Agent, Hardinsburg, Ky.

Dr. Jesse Baucum

RESIDENT Dentist

PHONE No. 2-R Cloverport, Ky.
Office Opposite Deize's Drug Store

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Weatherholt, of Louisville, spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Weatherholt.
Miss Maria Watkins, of Owensboro, arrived Saturday to visit Mrs. Shelby Conrad and Mrs. Edward Oglesby.
Kingwood camp meeting begins July 24 and ends August 2. Bro Hughes wants everybody interested to come.
Mr. and Mrs. Ruth Pate and son, John Burton Pate, and Mrs. Henry Pate spent the Fourth in Owensboro.
The Rev. Mr. E. O. Cottrell and the Rev. Mr. J. T. Lewis attended the Baptist convention at Dawson-Springs.
Mrs. Robert Pierce, of Louisville, was in town during the week-end and home and spend a month.
For cold drinks, fruits and many other things go to Allen King, successor to C. and L. Sippel.
The Mr. D. H. Severs is home from a part of the state where he has been several months on business.
Fred Ferry and daughter, Mrs. Anne Murray Ferry, spent Saturday at Fontaine Ferry in Louisville.
Mr. Margaret J. Gault has returned to her home in Louisville after a pleasant visit with her niece, Mrs. John Ridge.
Miss Lulu Severs will leave Thursday for Ashland, Ky., to spend a month, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Severs.
Miss Louise Moorman, of Glen Dean, and Mr. Edward Weber of Louisville, spent the Fourth with Miss Katharine Moorman.
Mrs. J. T. Lewis and daughter, Miss Louise Lewis, of Fordsville, are visiting at the home of Mr. Eli Dean at Glen Dean.
Miss Elizabeth Snyder, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Nevitt, Basinspring, returned Monday to her home in Garrett.
Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper spent last week at Caseyville. Mr. Cooper, one of the most capable insurance men of this place, is taking his vacation.
Miss Ola Fallon went to Irvington Thursday to meet Miss Sarah Fallon and Joe Fallon, Jr., of Elmitch, who will spend the summer here.
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Wroe and sons, Edmund and James Wroe, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wros, left Monday for Toccoa, Georgia.
We have a very low price on a motor and horse power hay press and loader. Call or address Irvington Hardware & Implement Co., Irvington, Ky.
The B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church will give a river excursion Friday night, July 10, for the members only. Boat leaves lower wharf promptly at 6:30.
If you need a motor or horse power hay press or hay loader at a bargain price, phone or address Irvington Hardware and Implement Co., Irvington, Ky.
Robert Herman Lane, the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lane died of whooping cough July 2. He was born June 10. Their friends deeply sympathize with them.
Mrs. James Witt and four children, Etel, Alton, Virginia and Louise, Frankfort, Ky., returned home Monday from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Payne, Bawlayville.

Sippel-Maxwell.

El Homer Maxwell, of Cincinnati, and Miss Lillian Katherine Sippel, of Cloverport, were married June 23 by the Rev. Aquilla Webb, pastor of Free byterian church, Fourth and Broadway. Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell will be at home for a short while in Gallipolis, Ohio.

THE DEAD LETTER OFFICE DOOMED

Peculiar Postal Institution Is Ninety Years Old.

PASSING OUT OF EXISTENCE

Machines and More Efficient Methods Have Largely Diminished Need For Clearing House For Quasi Mail, Including Childish Missives Addressed to Santa Claus.

The march of progress has singled out for its victim another of Washington's peculiar institutions. The old "dead letter office," long the goal of children's innocent missives addressed to Santa Claus, or of the illegible letter address of an illiterate foreigner, is gradually but surely passing out of existence, says the Washington Post.

Since last year the number of employees in the dead letter office has been reduced more than half. Then there were 180 employees; now there are about eighty.

Five reasons are assigned for the dismantlement of the dead letter office. First, the establishment of the parcel post system, not more than a year old, which has diverted a large volume of the former parcel business done in the dead letter office. The business once handled in Washington has been turned over to the several postoffices at division railway centers.

Machines Reduce Work. Second, letters from foreign countries have been diverted to the postoffice exchange agencies at the ports of entry of this country. Then there are two mammoth machines, which stand for efficiency and can cut 6,000 letters an hour when formerly the work had to be done by hand.

There is a similar machine for sealing the letters once opened, identified and returned. Last, but not least, the increased efficiency of trained readers and decipherers of the queer letters that come to the office from everywhere has developed a capacity for production that can "crowd out" the lesser and perhaps more superannuated clerk.

In connection with the dismissal of so called "superannuated" clerks, an official defended the department's stand. He said: "There has been a great hue and cry against dismissals from the postoffice department. In our division, although these dismissals have been frequent, I can say that we did everything in our power to find work for the employees ousted. We have referred them to the several branches of the service where work was to be had, and when they did not want to accept work outside of the city we have found it necessary to drop them, retaining only those who were the more efficient workers."

"There may be a false notion in the popular mind as to the function of our so called 'dead letter office.' The world believes we concern ourselves with the difficult manuscripts that are written by illiterates and by wee children, who write undecipherable addresses. They think our staff has nothing to do but develop expertness in reading that which no mortal can read. Such is not the case."

Duties of the Department.

"We have no longer the dead letter office of fifteen years ago. We have evolved and are now an efficient machine. To us come the unclaimed letters, misdirected letters, undelivered letters or letters to fraudulent concerns, as well as letters bearing prohibited mail, such as lotteries and the like. We are not working to decipher the illegible. All that is now left to the railway mail service, an organization with fifteen branch offices, which hires expert readers."

"We handle at least 38,000 pieces of mail a day, and each of our eighty employees returns 500 letters a day, or a total of 40,000 a day."

"The dead letter office of fifteen years ago represented a similar output of return mail of about 250 pieces of mail a day for each employee, and they employed twice the number of clerks we now carry."

"There has been some talk, it is true, of consolidating the division of dead letters with another division. It is certain they cannot do away with the work altogether. Whether this consolidation will take place I cannot say."

The dead letter office was established almost ninety years ago and is one of Washington's oldest and most widely celebrated institutions. It was established, as far as is known, in 1825, when it was installed in the building now the general land office.

Costs $5 to Swear at Uncle Sam. Guerdon Corwith, a writer, walked up to the Postoffice (N. Y.) postoffice window and asked Clerk Newlin to send a piece of crockery by parcel post. Newlin refused to accept the package, saying it was not properly wrapped. Corwith cursed Uncle Sam, his postoffice, the postmaster and all his clerks. When brought before Justice of the Peace Green Corwith pleaded guilty, but asserted that he was a landlubber and did not consider that he was using profane language. He was fined $5.

H. R. SMITH

Suffers Fatal Accident at Brandenburg—Thrown By a Run-Away Horse and Dies Within Few Hours.

Ekron, Ky., July 6.—(Special). H. R. Smith met with a fatal accident today on the street at Brandenburg. A horse that he was driving ran away, throwing him from his buggy. He lived only a few hours.

"Uncle Henry", as he was kindly called by every person, young and old, was long one of Meade county's foremost citizens. He was a splendid Christian, charitable in disposition and upright in his daily walk. He is survived by four sons.

To The Road Overseers Of Breckinridge County

Section 4306 Kentucky Statutes provides: "The Fiscal Court of each county shall have general charge and supervision of the public roads and bridges therein, and shall provide necessary rules and regulations for repairing and keeping the same in order, and for the PROPER MANAGEMENT of all ROADS and BRIDGES in said county under and subject to the provisions of this act. The public roads shall be maintained, either by taxation or by hands allotted to work thereon (or both) in the discretion of the Fiscal Court of the respective counties as hereinafter provided."

Section 56, Chapter 80 [Acts 1911] "The County Judge of each County may at the first regular term of his court after this act takes effect, divide his county into road precincts, shall fix boundaries for the same, and shall allot all the able-bodied male citizens within said boundary, between the ages of eighteen and fifty years, to work on the roads in their respective precincts. For each precinct he shall appoint an overseer, a resident of the precinct, who shall hold his office two years from the day of his appointment and until his successor shall be appointed, unless sooner removed by the County Court. And the County Judge shall fill all vacancies that may occur in said office."

Section 58. "The duties of the overseer shall be as follows to wit: In counties wherein the roads are worked by hands allotted as hereinbefore provided, the overseers shall have charge of the roads and bridges in their respective precincts, construct bridges, and work the roads in the manner directed by the Fiscal Court, shall summons the hands to work the roads in their precincts; superintend and direct said work and keep the roads and bridges therein free from obstruction and in good condition for travel; and may employ the necessary wagons, plows, scrapers, teams and such additional implements as may be needed to work said road; and shall report to the nearest Justice of the Peace or to the County Judge any failure or refusal of any of the hands on said road to appear and do good work in obedience to his summons, and the number and length of time of such failure, and he shall also report promptly to the County Judge any damages, injury or obstruction caused by one to said road or bridge therein."

Quoting from Section 85, Chapter 80, "Any one assigned to work on a public road who shall, without good cause, fail to appear with proper implements and do good work thereon, after having been notified for two days by the officer having supervision of the road, or by some one authorized in writing by him to give said notice, shall, on trial and conviction before a Justice of the Peace or the County Judge, be fined for each day he so fails to work, two dollars and fifty cents."

At the regular April term of the Breckinridge County Fiscal Court, a tax of 25 cents on each $100 worth of taxable property was levied for road and bridge purposes; also all road hands between the ages of 18 and 50 years be required to work 1 day during the year on the road in his respective precinct, but not more than 2 days in each week; unless in cases of emergency, in such cases they may be required to work any number of days.

We earnestly request that each overseer and all hands will comply with these instructions.

Yours for better roads,
R. M. Basham, Road Engineer,
D. D. Dowell, County Judge.

She Couldn't Hear Them. "I was surprised to learn that that man is married." "How did you learn it? You may be mistaken." "No chance for a mistake. He says he is in favor of going back to the old shin platters and having small bills for 5, 10, 25 and 50 cents." "But I don't see"— "Shin platters? What's that?"— "Shin platters? What's that?"— "Shin platters? What's that?"

Join the Bathing Crowd at the Beach

Let Us Supply the Outfit

Men's Bathing Suits 50c, $1, $1.50
Ladies' Bathing Suits . . . $2.00
Boys' Bathing Suits 50c and $1.00
Bathing Caps for Ladies 25 and 50c
Bothing Shoes . . . 25 and 50c

Come on in the Water's fine. You'll enjoy the fun.

J. C. NOLTE & BRO.
CLOVERPORT, KY.

$1.25 To Louisville
...And Return...
Sunday, July 12!

ATTRACTION
Base Ball!
Louisville vs. St. Louis

Special Train leaves Cloverport at 7:09; returning leaves Louisville at 8:30 p. m.

Tickets Good on Special Train Only

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION "ASK THE AGENT."

GREAT MEETING

Held at Harned By The Woman's Missionary Societies—Delightful and Inspiring Program.

Garfield, Ky., July 9, 1914.—(Special).—Our Union Missionary Rally at Harned the 5th was pronounced a success from start to finish. Societies represented were: Black Lick, Hardinsburg, Garfield, Ephesus, Freedom and Mount Zion.

The welcome address by Mrs. Percy Macy, made every one feel that our "lines had fallen in pleasant places," and Miss Maud Smith voiced the sentiment of all in her response.

Miss Emma Leachman from Louisville, was listened to with much interest, as she feelingly told of her work, and the work of the Training School located in Louisville.

The Quotation Contest was very interesting indeed and much enjoyed by all. Each child taking part in it deserves much credit, and the youngest ones were little Eula Hensley Shaw from Hardinsburg, and Raymond Crume, both under four years of age. It was inspiring and beautiful, and speaks volumes for their home training. Myrtle Gardner from Garfield, and Evelyn Bennington from Harned stood longest, in fact stood until we deemed it best to give both a badge of honor. So they today wear the blue ribbons, for giving most quotations. Am sorry we didn't keep count and know how many they gave.

We wish to thank every one who helped make the day a success for the Master and His cause.

Notes.

At 10:30 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Tom Gregory. After a song by the choir Mrs. C. L. Brington read a passage of Scripture and Mrs. J. O. Baker led in prayer.
Mrs. W. D. Smith's talk, illustrated with a map of the world, on "Why I am a Christian," was very interesting.

ing. Miss Emma Leachman, one of our city missionaries told of her work in the city of Louisville to the morning and in the afternoon she explained the work of the W. M. U. in the Southland. Those who have heard Miss Leachman know what a treat the audience had. It is always worth your while to hear her.

Miss Martha Harned read a paper on children's work. Miss Harned helps to train a band at Garfield whose membership consists of forty-one.

At the close a number of both men and women expressed themselves as being more missionary in spirit than they were in the beginning. It was a great day.

To Mrs. Gregory, who is the vice president of Breckenridge Association W. M. U., the credit is given for this meeting.

The people of Harned are to be congratulated on having such a splendid choir, who are trained by Mrs. C. L. Brington. Music always adds to every occasion.

Mr. Kingsbury Buys.

Allen Kingsbury, for many years clerk in J. C. Nolte & Bro's, bought the grocery store of Miss Lillian Sippel. Mr. Kingsbury knows the business well and can serve a large trade.

David R. Murray III.

Mrs. Fred Ferry received a telegram Sunday announcing the arrival of David R. Murray III at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Murray, Jr., in Indianapolis. The father is the son of Gen. David R. Murray.

Walter Campbell and Miss Katharine Campbell, of Louisville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Skillman. They were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Skillman yesterday. Their daughter have been here some time.

Broadway Jones

From the Play of George M. Cohan

By EDWARD MARSHALL

With Photographs from Scenes in the Play

Copyright, 1914, by C. W. Dillingham Company

CHAPTER XIV.

Clara had run down the steps, leaving the swing vibrating somewhat jerkily from the speed of her abandonment of it, declaring that she wished to get a sight of the elder Mr. Wallace, even if he did not choose to stop and talk when he came up. She had noted that the chauffeur, seeing the father and son approach, had already started his engine. Her desultory left Broadway and Josie in the swing alone together.

He laughed. "Did you notice that? She calls him 'hob.' I heard him call her 'Clara' 16 times today."

Josie smiled. "Yes; I noticed that."

Jackson was strangely intent upon her answer. He was confused, although he did not know the reason why. And then, suddenly, he knew. Finding that he knew, he found himself still more confused.

"Did you notice it?" he asked, with intense earnestness, knowing, somehow, that he was an ass. "I didn't think you noticed it."

Josie thrilled, but found it hard to smother laughter—not wholly that of ridicule, mostly that of joyousness. She made no other answer.

He looked around them at the broad veranda, with its pillared, old colonial doorway and wide windows; his eyes paused along the visible front of the enormous house itself, surveyed the spreading lawn, now dusky with the evening shadows of magnificent old trees, and the curving gravelled drive examined all, indeed, that he could see of the superb and spacious old Jones place.

"Nice little house, isn't it?" he asked.

"Oh I just love it!" It was indeed the show place of the town, and few were the local maidens who had not dreamed dreams of some time living in a mansion like it—dreamed wonderful dreams, speculative of unguessed sensations of vast wealth.

"Do you?"

"Why, yes. Don't you?"

"Yes," said Broadway, now looking not at the great house or any portion of the splendid grounds, but straight at her, although she was not sure of this because the light had very nearly failed. "I'm just crazy about it, that's all!"

She laughed and so did he. He had not much idea what he really was saying.

"You know, I think I shall become a model country gentleman in time," he added.

"It must seem strange to you, after the life you've been living."

She meant it very innocently, yet it shocked him fiercely. He sat up in the swing and gazed at her with out-thrust neck—that gesture which she thought was awkward funny, when she saw it first, in school days, but which she had rather begun to like.

"What do you know about the life I've been living?" he demanded.

She was not in the least suspicious. "I mean in New York—that great, big, wonderful place! It is a wonderful place, isn't it?"

He had had a thrill of panic. Now he quieted, although his heart still throbbed a little. He was glad she did not know about the life he had been leading.

"Have you never been to New York?" he asked.

"Never."

"That's funny. Would you like to go to New York?"

"I don't think I like to live there; but I'd like to see New York."

"What a shame! I can't go with you. May I come with you?"

"You can't go with me. I'm going to get married."

"You're kidding, aren't you?"

"No, I'm serious."

"What is Broadway?"

"Broadway?"

"It's a street, of course, but—"

"It's probably the greatest street in the world."

"Some people say it's terrible."

"It is."

"And some people say it's wonderful."

"It is—truly wonderful."

"I don't understand."

"Nobody understands Broadway," he answered. "People hate it, yet they don't know why. People love it, yet they don't know why. I don't. It's just because it's Broadway."

"Is it a mystery?"

"That's what it is—a mystery." He shook his head in thought.

The subject had lost interest to her—because she did not know its fascinations. "I suppose you go to church every Sunday morning. Tomorrow's Sunday."

He was astonished. He had been thinking of Broadway. There are churches on that thoroughfare, but they are not as brightly lighted as some other of its structures. "What's that again?"

"I say I suppose you go to church every Sunday morning."

"Oh—I've been going to Church."

A little, then exclaimed, not loudly: "Broadway!"

"What are you thinking of?"

"Oh, I was just thinking what a great thing it would be if I made a success of this business."

"Why, you're going to," she said confidently.

"Do you think so?"

"I'm sure of it if you will make up your mind to work—to keep busy."

"Yes; that's it. I've got to work."

He laughed. For a few moments they had been rather serious. "Work! Now, tomorrow, I'm going to plant a lot of vegetables and then I'm going to cut the grass; I'm going to milk the cow, and I am going to—er—paint the house. Work! Oh, I'm going to be the hustiest little fellow you ever saw. You know what I hope? I hope that butler of mine never comes back. I want to do all the work myself!"

"Your butler?"

"Yes; I sent him to New York yesterday on an errand."

"You sent him back for something?"

He wished to laugh, but did not. "No; I sent him back with something."

"Something valuable?"

He hesitated. Was Mrs. Gerard valuable? She had lost enormously in value in his eyes of late. "Well, it's worth a lot of money," he assured her, feeling certain that this speech was accurate.

"Perhaps he's lost it and is afraid to return," she suggested.

He smiled, remembering the instructions he had given Rankin. "If he's lost it he'll return all right—to claim the reward."

"For losing it? How funny?"

"Yes; isn't it?" He laughed. "But did not at once reply in detail. It was evident that there were some particulars to be divulged which he wished Broadway's ears alone to hear. "It was necessary."

"Why didn't you send me some word?"

"I can explain all that."

"Girls, will you excuse us?" Broadway asked, and as they nodded went slowly down upon the lawn with Rankin toward a clump of cedars. It had been planted in a circle, a favorite and funeral form of lawn decoration in those latitudes, and in the solemn space inclosed there was, he knew, a garden seat. "Just a few moments," Broadway pleaded as he went with Rankin toward this deep seclusion.

"Then I'll walk home with you."

"All right." Curiosity consumed the maidens. All this seemed exceedingly exciting to them. But, after all, they were not sorry for an opportunity to talk alone for a moment.

Broadway was very anxious, but Rankin said no word until they were within the leafy chamber. Even after they had reached its solitude Broadway had to urge:

"Well, come on; what's the news?"

"Surprising news, sir," Rankin answered hesitantly.

Broadway was all the more impatient. "Well, tell me; tell me! What did she say? How did you get rid of her?"

"I—I didn't get rid of her, sir."

"What? Where did you leave her then?"

"I—didn't leave her, sir. I've been with her ever since."

"Where is she now?" asked Broadway timorously, his voice weakening.

"She's here, sir."

This was terribly shocking. The worst had come to pass then—those fears which were so bad that they had been put aside as utterly unthinkable. "She came back with you?"

There was a look of horror on the face of Jackson Jones.

"Yes, sir."

His master's wrath rose. "You idiot! What did you let her do that for?"

Rankin spoke slowly and reluctantly. "She insisted that she must see you and talk with you, sir."

Now rose a soul in wild revolt. "I won't see her! I won't talk to her!"

"But she's right outside the hedge, sir. You must see her!"

"I—"

"Oh, she's perfectly reconciled, sir; believe me—"

Here was a shock as pleasant as the other had been terrible. It was almost too good to be true. "Reconciled! You mean she understands that?"

"Oh, yes, sir. She's already sent out a denial of her engagement to you."

His hearer could have rent the air with shouts of joy, but did not. He only asked inanely: "Has she?"

"Yes, sir." Now Rankin once more hesitated. "In the form, sir, of—" another announcement.

This nearly stunned his master. "You mean she's engaged to someone else?"

"Yes, sir; she's going to marry the earl of Cortland."

The recently harassed youth brightened. Was life to be entirely smooth and joyous after all, instead of only partly merry, with the balance turned into a tragedy by his ancient "Sweetheart, dearie?"

"The earl of Cortland?" he exclaimed.

"Yes, sir; will you see her, sir? I think it's best for all concerned."

"You're sure, are you? It's not a dream, or anything like that? She isn't trying to trap me?"

"No, sir. May I ask her to come in? She's just behind the hedge."

"Did she see her?"

"No; he was so busy talking with his father, sir, that he did not recognize us as we passed. Seems to be most earnest, sir, his father."

"Rankin, if you're certain, bring her in. But if—"

"I'm quite certain, sir."

Jackson waited for them near the entrance to the verdant circle. He thought it better not to go back to the house. Even if the lady was quite reconciled there still might be some details of her conversation which he would not care to have heard by the girls.

A short time later Rankin returned with Mrs. Gerard, not only walking by his side, but clinging to his arm. Her voice did not sound weary as she greeted Broadway.

"How do you do, Jackson?" she said quietly.

"How do you do, Mrs. Gerard?"

"Has Rankin told you?"

"Yes, Mrs. Gerard; Rankin has told me."

"She really seemed very much upset, but not belligerently so. I'd never be happy if New York should imagine I'd been jilted, or the subject of a practical joke," she began simply. "My excuse for throwing you over is a very good one—my engagement to the earl of Cortland."

He bowed, too puzzled to find any words.

"After a few hours' talk with Rankin I became convinced that a marriage between you and me never would have been a happy one."

Again Broadway nodded. He could quite agree with that.

"Hence my decision to marry the earl." She went closer to him almost pleadingly. "I've played fair with you, Jackson; now I want you to do the same by me."

"I'll do anything you ask," he fervently assured her. "Anything within reason, Mrs. Gerard."

"All I ask is that you keep my secret."

"I will. What is it?"

"You really don't know?"

"No, Mrs. Gerard."

After another tiny hesitation she held out her hand to Rankin. "May I present the earl of Cortland?" she said, leading the abashed butler forward.

"What!" Broadway was astonished almost to the point of physical collapse.

"It's true," she went on gravely. "We've had a thorough understanding, and Rankin has agreed to become an earl."

"Oh, don't be astonished! It's my only protection. Have I your solemn promise that you'll not divulge the secret?"

"I give you my word of honor," he said fervently.

"Very well. Goodbye!"

He earnestly shook hands with her. "Goodbye, Mrs. Gerard. I hope you will be very happy."

"It isn't a question of happiness, Jackson," she said slowly, and in a way that somewhat worried him. "I simply don't want to be humiliated. You understand?"

"Yes; I understand, Mrs. Gerard."

She turned to the earl of Cortland. "Shake hands with Mr. Jones, Rankin."

Jackson pulled him to one side, almost indignantly. "See here, Rankin, do you mean to tell me that you'd do such a mean contemptible thing as to marry a woman deliberately for her money?"

"Yes, sir," said Rankin very gravely, "and thank you, sir, for the opportunity."

"Come, earlie," Mrs. Gerard called softly.

"Yes, Beatrice." He dropped the hand of his erstwhile employer and took the arm of his affianced wife.

"We have just six minutes before train time," she admonished him, and turned to Broadway, who was standing, dazed. "Goodbye!"

He had gone back to the house and was standing leaning somewhat weakly against a pillar of the porch, unable even to make her presence known to the two girls whose laughing, low-toned gossip he could hear from behind the vines, when Wallace came up with his father. He listened to his friend's remarks mechanically.

"Yes," he was saying, "the entire population of the town is about four thousand. The plant employs about seven hundred." Then, catching sight of Broadway: "There's Jackson now. Tell him what you just told me."

Broadway went to meet them, glad to have the opportunity to test life and make sure that it was real, even if the proof showed that the elder Wallace was entirely hostile.

"They offered you a million and a half, didn't they?" asked Bob.

"Yes, that's what they offered—a million and a half."

"Mr. Jones," said the elder Wallace, "not without enthusiasm, my son has been telling me of the grand, single-handed fight that you are making against this giant corporation. I admire your pluck, sir."

Broadway looked at him with real surprise and hearty gratitude. It seemed that even this was coming out all right!

"You deserve all the encouragement and assistance possible," said this suddenly delightful gentleman. "Your loyalty to the people of this little town is commendable, sir. You deserve great credit, and I want to shake your hand."

"Thanks, Mr. Wallace, but the credit really belongs to Bob." The delight which Broadway felt was plainly audible in his voice.

Bob laughed. "I knew he'd say that!"

"He has told me of your modesty," said the elder Wallace. "I am very proud that you have taken him into the firm, and if advertising has any market value we'll fight them to a finish. I have promised my son to return here Monday morning. I may have a proposition to put before you. I'd like to see him an equal partner in a business with such a promising future."

"I don't know what to say, Mr. Wallace," Broadway answered, and he really did not.

"Monday will be time enough," the elder Wallace answered genially. "I have an appointment with Pembroke at his house tomorrow. After I have had ten minutes' walk with him I promise you that the Consolidated people will make no further attempts to absorb him. But now I must go. Good night!"

Jackson grasped his hand with fervor. "What a night this was!"

"Going to motor back?" asked Bob.

"Yes; I prefer my motor car to the railroad. See you Monday. Good night!"

"Isn't it like a dream?" asked Bob after the last glimmer of glow from the car's headlight had vanished down the road.

"I can't believe it's true."

"He wants to buy a half interest in your business. Did you get that?"

"All I want is enough to pay my debts."

Bob laughed. "Don't tell him that; he's a business man!"

"But—"

"I think you'd better let me handle that for you."

"Will you? Fine!" It suddenly occurred to him that he must tell his friend at once about the Rankin-Gerard episode, but he did not mean to break his promise to the ancient bride. "Say, Bob, I've just—I've just had a telephone message from New York. What do you think has happened?"

"Go on, tell me."

"Mrs. Gerard has denied her engagement to me and is going to marry the earl of Cortland."

"Wallace took this in a gulp of joy. 'Honestly?'"

"I just got the word."

present the earl of Cortland?" she said, leading the abashed butler forward.

"What!" Broadway was astonished almost to the point of physical collapse.

"It's true," she went on gravely. "We've had a thorough understanding, and Rankin has agreed to become an earl."

"Oh, don't be astonished! It's my only protection. Have I your solemn promise that you'll not divulge the secret?"

"I give you my word of honor," he said fervently.

"Very well. Goodbye!"

He earnestly shook hands with her. "Goodbye, Mrs. Gerard. I hope you will be very happy."

"It isn't a question of happiness, Jackson," she said slowly, and in a way that somewhat worried him. "I simply don't want to be humiliated. You understand?"

"Yes; I understand, Mrs. Gerard."

She turned to the earl of Cortland. "Shake hands with Mr. Jones, Rankin."

Jackson pulled him to one side, almost indignantly. "See here, Rankin, do you mean to tell me that you'd do such a mean contemptible thing as to marry a woman deliberately for her money?"

"Yes, sir," said Rankin very gravely, "and thank you, sir, for the opportunity."

"Come, earlie," Mrs. Gerard called softly.

"Yes, Beatrice." He dropped the hand of his erstwhile employer and took the arm of his affianced wife.

"We have just six minutes before train time," she admonished him, and turned to Broadway, who was standing, dazed. "Goodbye!"

He had gone back to the house and was standing leaning somewhat weakly against a pillar of the porch, unable even to make her presence known to the two girls whose laughing, low-toned gossip he could hear from behind the vines, when Wallace came up with his father. He listened to his friend's remarks mechanically.

"Yes," he was saying, "the entire population of the town is about four thousand. The plant employs about seven hundred." Then, catching sight of Broadway: "There's Jackson now. Tell him what you just told me."

Broadway went to meet them, glad to have the opportunity to test life and make sure that it was real, even if the proof showed that the elder Wallace was entirely hostile.

"They offered you a million and a half, didn't they?" asked Bob.

"Yes, that's what they offered—a million and a half."

"Mr. Jones," said the elder Wallace, "not without enthusiasm, my son has been telling me of the grand, single-handed fight that you are making against this giant corporation. I admire your pluck, sir."

Broadway looked at him with real surprise and hearty gratitude. It seemed that even this was coming out all right!

"You deserve all the encouragement and assistance possible," said this suddenly delightful gentleman. "Your loyalty to the people of this little town is commendable, sir. You deserve great credit, and I want to shake your hand."

"Thanks, Mr. Wallace, but the credit really belongs to Bob." The delight which Broadway felt was plainly audible in his voice.

Bob laughed. "I knew he'd say that!"

"He has told me of your modesty," said the elder Wallace. "I am very proud that you have taken him into the firm, and if advertising has any market value we'll fight them to a finish. I have promised my son to return here Monday morning. I may have a proposition to put before you. I'd like to see him an equal partner in a business with such a promising future."

"I don't know what to say, Mr. Wallace," Broadway answered, and he really did not.

"Monday will be time enough," the elder Wallace answered genially. "I have an appointment with Pembroke at his house tomorrow. After I have had ten minutes' walk with him I promise you that the Consolidated people will make no further attempts to absorb him. But now I must go. Good night!"

Jackson grasped his hand with fervor. "What a night this was!"

"Going to motor back?" asked Bob.

"Yes; I prefer my motor car to the railroad. See you Monday. Good night!"

"Isn't it like a dream?" asked Bob after the last glimmer of glow from the car's headlight had vanished down the road.

"I can't believe it's true."

"He wants to buy a half interest in your business. Did you get that?"

"All I want is enough to pay my debts."

Bob laughed. "Don't tell him that; he's a business man!"

"But—"

"I think you'd better let me handle that for you."

"Will you? Fine!" It suddenly occurred to him that he must tell his friend at once about the Rankin-Gerard episode, but he did not mean to break his promise to the ancient bride. "Say, Bob, I've just—I've just had a telephone message from New York. What do you think has happened?"

"Go on, tell me."

"Mrs. Gerard has denied her engagement to me and is going to marry the earl of Cortland."

"Wallace took this in a gulp of joy. 'Honestly?'"

"I just got the word."

present the earl of Cortland?" she said, leading the abashed butler forward.

"What!" Broadway was astonished almost to the point of physical collapse.

"It's true," she went on gravely. "We've had a thorough understanding, and Rankin has agreed to become an earl."

"Oh, don't be astonished! It's my only protection. Have I your solemn promise that you'll not divulge the secret?"

"I give you my word of honor," he said fervently.

"Very well. Goodbye!"

He earnestly shook hands with her. "Goodbye, Mrs. Gerard. I hope you will be very happy."

"It isn't a question of happiness, Jackson," she said slowly, and in a way that somewhat worried him. "I simply don't want to be humiliated. You understand?"

"Yes; I understand, Mrs. Gerard."

She turned to the earl of Cortland. "Shake hands with Mr. Jones, Rankin."

Jackson pulled him to one side, almost indignantly. "See here, Rankin, do you mean to tell me that you'd do such a mean contemptible thing as to marry a woman deliberately for her money?"

"Yes, sir," said Rankin very gravely, "and thank you, sir, for the opportunity."

"Come, earlie," Mrs. Gerard called softly.

"Yes, Beatrice." He dropped the hand of his erstwhile employer and took the arm of his affianced wife.

"We have just six minutes before train time," she admonished him, and turned to Broadway, who was standing, dazed. "Goodbye!"

He had gone back to the house and was standing leaning somewhat weakly against a pillar of the porch, unable even to make her presence known to the two girls whose laughing, low-toned gossip he could hear from behind the vines, when Wallace came up with his father. He listened to his friend's remarks mechanically.

"Yes," he was saying, "the entire population of the town is about four thousand. The plant employs about seven hundred." Then, catching sight of Broadway: "There's Jackson now. Tell him what you just told me."

Commissioner's Sale.

Breckenridge Circuit Court, Kentucky.
R. D. Hamilton, Plaintiff Against
Joseph Stewart and Mary Stewart, Defendants.

By virtue of a Judgement and Order of Sale of Breckenridge Circuit Court, rendered at May Term thereof, 1914, in the above cause, for the sum of $250.04, with int. at the rate of 6% from Mch. 3rd, 1910, until paid subject to credit of $24.80 paid Mch. 17, 1910; also the sum of $250.04 with int. at rate of 6% from Mch. 3rd, 1910 until paid; also the sum of $250.04 with int. from Mch. 3, 1910; also the sum of $250.04 with int. from Mch. 3, 1910, all of said interests payable annually and all costs of this action and all costs herein, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Court-House door in Hardinsburg, to the highest bidder, at PUBLIC AUCTION, on Monday, the 27th day of July, 1914, at one o'clock P. M., or thereabout (being County Court day), upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described property, to-wit: "A certain tract or parcel of land lying and being situated on the waters of Town Creek in the County of Breckenridge and State of Kentucky and bounded as follows, viz: Beginning at a point on the east line of the home farm of Mrs. Eliza S. Burks, also being the Brinley corner, and marked by a stone and two beeches on an east hill side, marked X on plat, running thence N. 78 deg. 30 seconds E. 88 poles to a sugar tree and beech near the base of a high cliff, thence S. 10 degrees 30 seconds E. 87 poles to a stone in a bottom, thence N. 74 E. 100 poles to a pile of stones between two beeches standing about 18 feet apart, thence S. 10 degrees 30 seconds E. 102 poles to an elm and stone, Busham's corner, thence with his line N. 88 degrees 45 seconds W. crossing Town Creek at 24 poles, another branch at 15 poles and a high cliff at 98 poles, in all 126 poles to a hickory on a flat, Busham's corner to his second tract, thence with another of his lines N. 62 degrees 30 seconds W. 74 poles to a gum on a hill side, thence S. 34 degrees W. 11 poles to a stone corner to Busham & Powers, thence N. 16 degrees 30 seconds W. 18 poles to the county road, thence with the road N. 22 degrees 30 seconds W. 30 poles to a stone on the top of the hill on the north side of the road, thence with the road N. 23 W. 18 poles N. 44 W. 8 poles to a white oak, N. 65 W. 18 poles to a white oak, on the north side of the road, N. 85 W. 15 poles S. 85 W. 20 poles to a limestone rock in the county road, Power's corner, thence with Dutchick's line N. 59 degrees 30 seconds W. 21 1/2 poles to a locust, Adison's corner, thence with his line N. 12 degrees 30 seconds W. 25 poles to a stone and beech, thence N. 63 degrees 30 second E. 20 poles to two ash and sugar trees on the west side of the branch, thence N. 40 E. 11 poles to a dogwood and large gum, thence N. 87 E. 13 poles to a large dogwood thence N. 49 E. 40 poles to an elm and cliff, thence N. 83 E. 12 poles to a sugar tree, red bud and elm, thence S. 66 E. 14 poles to a beech near fence, thence S. 30 degrees 30 seconds E. 8 poles to the beginning, containing 231 1-10 acres.

There is excepted from the above tract 19 acres which is not intended to be included in this mortgage, having been sold to John Busham, by deed dated and recorded in the County Clerk's Office, Deed Book No. 50, page 161.

The purchaser, with approved surety or securities, must execute bond, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a judgment. Lien retained to secure payment of purchase money. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

LEE WALLS, Commissioner.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price, $1.00.

ROSETTA

Several from here attended the Community picnic at Irvington.

Miss Arline Ross is working at St. Matthews now.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Whitworth were the guests of Mrs. Cora Priest's family, near Garfield Sunday.

Mrs. John Mercer was called to the bedside of her little grandson, James Willis, of Hardinsburg, Saturday.

Ben Clarkson, of Big Spring, passed through here in his machine en route to Hardinsburg, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stinnett, of Garfield, visited Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Stinnett Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Chappell and daughter, Miss Lula attended the all day services at Pate's school house Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelsa Claycomb, of near Irvington, Sunday.

Mr. Clinton Wroe, of Irvington, is the week end guest of his father, Mr. Durwood Wroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gross and family and Mrs. Francis Mitcham of near Hawleyville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Stinnett, Sunday.

SAVED BY GRIGSBY

Twinner's Pharmacy, Greenville, Texas, Sends This Testimonial From a Prominent Grocer of That Place

March 9, 1914

"I take pleasure in saying for the curation that by the use of LIV VEE LAX my child was cured of a disease which is correctly described by the organized symptoms of Biliousness, Headache and Liver Trouble and Constipation and resulting complications; and I commend its use to all sufferers."

D. L. PRIEST, Witness
MR. KIMBROUGH,
3309 Stonewell.

SCHOOLS ARE THE FOUNDATION

PROGRESS AND PROSPERITY OF STATE DEPENDS UPON EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES.

CHOOSE GOOD MEN TRUSTEES

Office in Many Instances Has Fallen into the Hands of Incompetent and Indifferent Citizens.

To All Our Fellow Citizens Who Love Kentucky and Wish to See Her Advance to a Higher State of Prosperity, Materially, Morally and Intellectually—Greeting:

The schools are at the very foundation of all prosperity and progress. The quality of our schools inevitably set the standard of our citizenship. The quality of our schools must be the result of the qualifications, interests and activities of our trustees, teachers and patrons.

The trustees as a rule choose the teachers. The County Boards are made up from the ranks of the district trustees and all the affairs of the school district are in the hands of, or under the influence more or less of, the trustee, hence the vital importance of choosing the very best and most suitable man in each district for the office of district trustee.

It is true that hitherto this office has generally been despised and looked down upon as unworthy of great consideration. As a consequence it has largely fallen into incompetent and indifferent hands, and as a result the children's heritage has been sold for less than a "mess of pottage."

But we are glad to see a great change coming, the people are beginning to recognize the very great importance of this office and we believe are going to see it filled with the best ability in each district.

For this reason we think it is opportune to call the attention of the school patrons especially, and the public in general to the fact that on the 1st day of August next these important offices are to be chosen by the voters—now both men and women.

We would emphasize with all possible force and urgency that the voters turn out on the day of the election for school trustees and choose men of character, of breadth of view, of activity, of earnest purpose, incorruptible, and who it may fairly be expected will prove loyal to the interests of the children. Elect him and make him serve. As a rule we would not advise the election of a man who is seeking the office.

Given one of the best men in each district of the state, as school trustee, and in one year from their installation we would see such a transformation in the outlook for this Commonwealth as has not hitherto been dreamed of.—John B. McFerran, Chairman Educational Committee, Louisville Commercial Club.

comb, of near Irvington, Sunday

Mr. Clinton Wroe, of Irvington, is the week end guest of his father, Mr. Durwood Wroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gross and family and Mrs. Francis Mitcham of near Hawleyville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Stinnett, Sunday.

When baby suffers with eczema or some itching skin trouble, use Doan's Ointment. A little of it goes a long way and it is safe for children. 50c a box at all stores.

Famous Authors Once Sailors.
Perhaps the most celebrated authors who started life as sailors are Fenimore Cooper, the famous author of the "Last of the Mohicans," Clark Russell, the author of "Alone on the Wide, Wide Sea," and Frank Bullen, the author of "The Cruise of the Cachalot." This trio has made excellent use of the seafaring lore which only experience can give in the long list of works for which they are responsible.

How To Give Quinine To Children.
FERBRIN is the trade-mark name given to an improved Quinine. It is a pleasant-tasting and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. Also especially adapted to adults who cannot take ordinary Quinine. Does not cause a severe nervous prostration in the head. Try it the next time you need Quinine for any purpose. Ask your druggist for it. The name FERBRIN is on the wrapper.

Read the Little Want Ads.

WHAT A LIVE TRUSTEE CAN DO

As illustrating some of the few important things that a live trustee of broad view and real interest in his office might have in mind and be instrumental in accomplishing, attention is called to the following:

"A school expecting to reach the highest degree of efficiency must work under auspicious conditions. These conditions include a comfortable, attractive school building, surrounded by beautiful, well-kept grounds. The condition of the building and grounds is a correct index of the appreciation of the community for the school. The parents, and not the children, are to be judged by the appearance of their future school buildings and grounds."—Dougherty, State Superintendent of Schools.

The Site.
The trustee whose duty it may be to select the site should aim to provide for the largest convenience of all the children who are to attend. One of the most important features is the healthfulness of the locality. An elevated piece of ground, a knoll, or a gentle slope should be chosen for the reason that the drainage should be from and not toward the house. Sand or gravel sub-soil affords natural drainage, and a southern or eastern slope secures the rapid evaporation of surface water and is the most favorable in the admission of health-giving sunlight. The house should stand where there will be free play of breezes. Trees should be near, yet not so near as to shade the house completely or to shut out the breezes in hot weather; both breeze and sunlight are essential to health. A school house should never be built on low or marshy ground, near stagnant pools, or in the neighborhood of offensive odors, nor should it in any event be near a noisy railway or manufacturing plant.

Water Supply.
On every school house site there should be a well-protected well so placed and guarded as to be perfectly secure against surface drainage or filth of any kind.

The School House.
A building should be fitted for the school on the same principle that a dwelling is made for the family; the health and comfort of the children should be the first consideration because all the work will be affected by the impressions they receive and the habits they contract at school. They will reach maturity with more or less vigor and make better or worse citizens according to the influences there exerted upon them.

Grounds.
The erection of a suitable building is one good step, furnishing it well is another, employing a good teacher is of the greatest importance, but beyond these the improvement of the yard and grounds is worthy of much attention. Children catch the sentiment of a place by inspection. The beautiful lawn, the shady grove, the inviting playgrounds have a charm for them, even the flower border impresses rough and reckless fellows with respect. It helps to refine their thoughts and purify their hearts.

The Architect.
One of the first and important things in the construction of a school is the employment of an architect. The architect is regarded as an almost useless expense by some people. The aim of all good architects from earliest antiquity has been to build permanently and to build nobly. The charge of all reputable architects are about the same. It is poor economy to employ a man who does not know his business because his price is less. You pay more for what you get but do not know it.—Department of Education, Kentucky.

Cured of Indigestion.

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.

Foreman's Gentle Hint.

A gang of laborers was employed digging a mysterious ditch across the street. It was a sewer or a place to put a gas pipe or something. One man in particular was working as if he were a chorus man in a play, just going through the motions and pretending to dig a ditch. The foreman came along and spoke to him. "Don't be afraid," he said, with rich sarcasm. "Lean on th' shovel now an' th' thim. If it breaks I'll pay for it!"

How One Pastor Built Church.

Last winter one of the strong churches of Los Angeles extended Rev. W. H. Shawer of Memphis, Tenn., a call to become their pastor, and after considering all sides of the question he decided to accept the call, relates the Christian Herald. So he convened his official board, placed before them his resignation and asked to be released. His board being made up of tactful business men, and knowing that their pastor had tried for years to build a new church, requested him to hold the resignation in abeyance for a week, which he did. Then the board got busy, bought a new site for a church and paid $27,000 for it and reported to the church the following Sunday that they would build a new church on it at once if their pastor would consent to remain with them. He waited another week, and then said to his church: "I will stay with you if you will subscribe $15,000 for the new church at once." They took him at his word, and at that service subscribed $4,000 for the new building. It was without any loss of time that the new church was built.

The Mints Are Working Every Day---

Coining Dollars--You ought to save a few of them. We suggest that you start a Savings Account in this Bank, where it will be safe and earn you interest.

FIRST STATE BANK, Irvington, Ky.
J. C. PAYNE, Cashier

HUGHES' CHILL TONIC

PALATABLE
Better than Calomel and Quinine. (Contains No Arsenic.)
THE OLD RELIABLE

EXCELLENT GENERAL TONIC

As well as a Remedy for Chills and Fevers, Malarial Fevers, Swamp Fevers and Bilious Fevers. Just what you need at this season.
MILD LAXATIVE, NERVOUS SEDATIVE, SLENDING TONIC
Guaranteed. Try It. Don't take any substitutes. All Druggists. 50c and $1.00 Bottles.

PREPARED BY
ROBINSON-PETTET COMPANY,
INCORPORATED.
LOUISVILLE, - - KENTUCKY.

Victoria Hotel

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Opposite Union Station

Rate $1.00 -:-: Bath $1.50

European

Solicits patronage of Cloverport Business Men and Shoppers

News Want Ads. are Little Winners

A Chance to Make $50

The Woman's Home Companion For July

contains a picture "Which Girl will Egbert Marry?"

For the Most Interesting Answer
$50 Will be Paid!

Here is the opportunity to make money out of your opinion whether a man will marry the vivacious, clever girl who dances, or the sweet, sensible girl.

Get your answer from real life; it's easy.
Remember the picture is in

The Woman's Home Companion
PRICE 15 Cents

Summer Photographs!

Make The Prettiest Pictures

Have your own photograph made at Home or at my studio

Home Pictures

Pictures of Children

Post Card Photographs

For New Acquaintances

I make a specialty of developing Kodak Films.
Watch for my price-list

C. G. BRABANDT,

Photographer

Cloverport,

Try For Neat

KEEPS YOUR HOME FRESH and CLEAN

Duntley

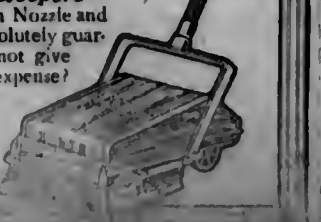

Combination Pneumatic Sweeper

THIS Swiftly-Sweeping, Easy-Running DUNTLEY Sweeper cleans without raising dust, and at the same time picks up pins, lint, ravelings, etc., in ONE OPERATION. Its ease makes sweeping a simple task quickly finished. It reaches even the most difficult places, and eliminates the necessity of moving and lifting all heavy furniture.

The Great Labor Saver of the Home—Every home, large or small, can enjoy relief from broom drudgery and protection from the danger of flying dust.

Duntley is the Pioneer of Pneumatic Sweepers—Has the combination of the Pneumatic Suction Nozzle and revolving Brush. Very easily operated and absolutely guaranteed. In buying a Vacuum Cleaner, why not give the "Duntley" a try in your home at our expense?

Write for literature.
AGENTS WANTED! DUNTLEY PNEUMATIC SWEEPER COMPANY, 6501 S. STATE ST., CHICAGO

CUT PRICES

We are offering the greatest values in summer merchandise that you ever heard of; these summer goods must go. If it is the PRICE and QUALITY of the goods that you are looking for you cannot afford to miss these bargains.

MEN'S OXFORDS

Men's Tan Lotus Ventilator; reg, $2.75; cut price $1.98

Men's White Canvas Pluck Blu. Oxfords; also Tan Button; regular $3.50 value; cut price $2.69

Men's Kid Pilgrim Cap Blu. Oxfords; regular $4.00; cut price $2.98

Men's Gun Metal and Black Kid Cap Blu. Oxfords; Regular $2.75 and $3.00; Cut price $2.15

LADIES OXFORDS

Ladies' Society Tan Calf English Last Oxfords; regular $3.75; cut price $2.75

Ladies' Mayflower Tan Calf Balkan Last, White Canvas, Gun Calf Button and Brown Buck Button; all regular $3.00; cut price $1.98

Ladies' Greatest and Satin Gun Metal Button and Plain Toe Pumps; regular $2.50; cut price $1.75

Misses' Tess and Ted Gun Metal Tan Calf Pump; regular $2.00; cut price $1.49

American Beauty Corsets

$3.00 Corsets cut to	$2.39
$2.50 Corsets cut to	1.69
$2.00 Corsets cut to	1.39
$1.50 Corsets cut to	1.19
$1.00 Corsets cut to	.42

Remnants at Half Price
Friday, July 10th from 2:30 to 3:30

CLOTHING

Men's two and three piece Suits; regular $17.50 and $18.50 values; cut price $14.49

Men's two and three piece Suits; regular $14.00 and $15.00 values; cut price $11.49

$12.50 and $13.00 Suits; cut price $8.98

$8.50 Suits cut to $6.49

Boys' two-piece Suits; regular $8.00 values; cut to $6.49

Boys' two-piece Suits; regular $6.50 values; cut to $5.49

Boys' two-piece Suits; regular $5.00 and $5.50; cut to $3.98

B. F. BEARD & CO., - - - Hardinsburg, Ky.

TOBINSPO

Wallace Weatherholt, of Indianapolis, is spending his vacation with his folks.

Miss Leona Suddarth, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Parrish of Stephensport, returned home Tuesday.

Bert Wheeler, of Rome, visited Miss Rada Parrish Sunday.

Dr. Snyder and family, of Troy, were here Tuesday, looking at the Weatherholt property which is for sale.

Miss Verda Polk has gone to Decatur, Ill., for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. John Van Conla.

Mrs. Eva Hickett and Miss Freda Dick, of German, visited Mrs. Peter Loesch and other friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Willard Ryan's little son has been critically ill for several days. Dr. Chas. Lightfoot is treating him.

Mrs. Mary Thomas, of Moweaqua, Ill., and Mrs. Nancy Rife, of Waitman, Ky., are visiting their sister, Mrs. Ida Lewis.

The Home Economics Club met with Mrs. G. L. Polk Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Crosby, of Hawesville, Ky., was called to see Mrs. Alec Clark Thursday. Her condition does not improve.

Levi Hicke's threshing outfit came in Tuesday night. He is doing excellent work, and wheat is yielding fine.

Taxes due me for the years, 1913 and 1914, not paid by July 10, 1914, collected by law. L. V. Chaplin.

IRVINGTON.

are from Louisville. Mrs. Harry expected to into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Bandy who recently moved to Louisville.

Mrs. Murry Nix and children have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shrewsbury.

Henry Bennett, of High Plains, has been visiting in our town.

Born, July 3, to the wife of Oscar Adkisson, a son.

Miss Maude Mattingly has returned home after a visit to her brother, E. Mattingly, of Custer.

Taylor Dowell and sister, Miss Ida, were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Wallace Brown, Thursday.

Mrs. Ruth Whitworth and little son and Miss Lottie Maey are visiting their sister, Mrs. Henry Carnon, of Bonnieville.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Haynes visited Judge and Mrs. Davis Dowell at Hardinsburg Sunday.

Pete Butler shipped a car load of sheep and lambs from here Tuesday.

Messrs. Booker and Brown of the firm of Booker & Cecil, motivated down from Louisville Tuesday and were guests of D. H. Smith.

A few from here attended the picnic at Hardinsburg Saturday.

Mr. Bruner, Bruner's Springs, visited friends here Saturday.

Quite a number from here attended the Missionary Rally held at Harned Sunday, and one of our little girls, Myrtle Gardner, wore her ribbon from the Evelyn Bruington, from Harned, and her were both awarded badges for their splendid list of quotations.

Cure Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cure
The worst cases, no matter of how long standing, are cured by the wonderful, old reliable Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves Pain and Heals at the same time. 25c, 50c, $1.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner, Louisville, returned home Friday after a visit to Miss May Cornwall.

Mrs. Sue C. Jolly has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, Guston.

Little Hazel Admire, Louisville, is guest of Misses Mabel and Nelle Adkins.

Winfield Hendry, Union Star, was here last week.

Mrs. Nannie J. Wathen has returned from Louisville.

Miss Lottie Bandy spent the 4th at Sulphur Wells.

Miss Jessye Brady is home from Louisville.

Bro's Kendall and Owen are assisting Rev. T. J. Wade in a revival at the M. E. church. Great interest is being displayed.

Misses Mildred Hawes and Evelyn Payne visited friends in Owensboro last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thomas and children, Thelma, Margaret, and Agnes Beauchamp, left for their home in Leitchfield, Thursday.

PUREST SWEETEST BEST

ONLY GOOD WHEAT SCIENTIFICALLY MILLED MAKES THE BEST FLOUR
Extra Fancy Self Rising Snow Drift, First Patent Bob White

Snow Drift flour is made under cleanly and sanitary conditions, is warranted ABSOLUTELY PURE and free from adulterations of any kind. Its purity and wholesomeness are its highest recommendations.

CALL FOR THE BAG WITH THE LOAF OF BREAD ON IT!

It is best, costs no more than the rest—why not use it?

Hardinsburg Mill & Elevator Co. Hardinsburg, Kentucky

STRAIGHTFORWARD TESTIMONY

Many Cloverport Citizens Have Profited By It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headache or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. These are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments—are endorsed by over 30,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy—have proved its merit in many tests. Cloverport readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Cloverport citizen.

L. V. Chaplin, Cloverport, Ky., says: "I was in bad shape with kidney trouble. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended, I went to Fisher's Drug Store and got a box. One box cured me. I have had no need of a kidney medicine since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Chaplin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Will Conniff, Louisville, has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. Adele Conniff.

Miss Ava Westerfield, Fordsville, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Murrell Brooks.

Mrs. D. C. Heron and L. H. Jolly chaperoned a crowd of young people to Sample Saturday.

Mr. R. B. McGlothlin has returned from a visit to friends in Louisville.

Mrs. W. J. Piggott left Monday evening for Nashville.

Mrs. R. L. Morgan and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, arrived from Danville Friday to join Mr. R. L. Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Drury, Beyleyville, were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ditto, and Mr. and Mrs. Evan Ditto have returned to their home in Louisville, having visited relatives and friends in our community.

Leon Lewis, Louisville, spent the week-end here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Graham, and handsome little son, Roy Cleo, will return from a visit to relatives in Madisonville Thursday.

If you need a motor or horse power hay press or hay loader at a bargain price, phone or address Irvington Hardware and Implement Co., Irvington.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lyons, Glendene, is guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Lyons.

Messrs. D. C. Heron, T. R. Blythe, W. J. Piggott and C. J. Carnegie attended the funeral of Jas. Harris, Louisville, Sunday.

Mrs. Manuel Brooks entertained Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Ava Westerfield. Delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Telford have returned from Fordsville.

Miss Mildred Chitwood has gone to Hardinsburg to accept a position as night operator with Cumb. Tel. & Tel. Co.

Walker Brown and family, Lewisport, have moved here.

A special service for boys and men will be held at the Methodist church in Irvington, Ky., Sunday, July 12 at 3:00 P. M. The subject will be "Sour Grapes" discussed by Rev. J. B. Kendall.

We Send Without Fail When Ordered by Mail

For the next 30 days we will close out our entire line of PAINTS AT COST

If you want some real bargains in paint see us before you buy

Pocket Knives
Special for this week only—A large assortment of Pocket Knives for the small sum of 25c
If you need a knife it will pay you to see our window display

We are selling lots of Fly Dope 25c per pint; also sprayer for 25 cents.

N. C. P., for Indigestion—it will relieve that tired feeling. Our Kidney Pills for that lame back 50c

Kodaks and Supplies
We print and develop films.

Kincheloe's Pharmacy
The Quality Store Hardinsburg, Ky.

THOS. A. RHODES

DEALER IN
Dry Goods, Groceries, Clothing, Shoes and Notions. We make the Friedman & Shelby Red Goose Shoe a specialty, and also handle the Shymanski Clothing. Give us a call.
Hardinsburg, Ky.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence.

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did no fulfil the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root is due to the fact that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the Breckenridge News.

cussed by Rev. J. B. Kendall. Come!

We have a low price on a motor and horse power hay press and hay loader. Call or address the Irvington Hardware and Implement Co., Irvington, Ky.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days
Your druggist will refund money if PAIN OINTMENT fails to cure any case of itching, bleeding, prolapsing piles in 6 to 14 days. The first application gives ease and rest.

Want ads are sure winners

BIRTHDAY Presents In Summertime!

CARE always appreciated. If you have a friend or anyone very dear to you, who will have a birthday this summer, surprise them with a gift of Jewelry.

Beautiful Rings, Pins, Bracelets, Watches and Cuff Buttons for men make lovely presents.

T. C. LEWIS, JEWELER
Hardinsburg, Kentucky

Appointed Member of The Missionary Council

Mrs. W. J. Piggott left for Nashville Tuesday to attend a meeting of the Committee on Literature of the Woman's Missionary Council of the M. E. Church South.

Mrs. Piggott has been recently elected Superintendent of the Department of Social Service, which office makes her a member of the Executive Committee of the Council.

Miss Bell Bennett of Richmond, Ky., President of the Council, is also a Kentucky native.

Next